

Jail's So Crowded Some Inmates Must Sleep On Floor

Marin County Jail facilities are so crowded that as many as 20 inmates have been forced to sleep on makeshift beds on the concrete floor, county supervisors learned last night during a tour behind bars.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and Chief Jailer Frank Christ recommended to the supervisors that bedding capacity be increased and work furlough inmates be kept in separate quarters from those in jail on "straight time."

The sheriff also announced he is thinking of having a jailer inside the cells 24 hours a day so the sheriff will have direct supervision on what goes on inside. At present, trustees among the inmates report on the inner activities to the jailers outside the bars.

Unconfirmed rumors in the past have implied that an unhealthy situation could exist inside the jail; for example, in the "drunk tank." Some rumors hint that since no jailer is inside the cells, an inmate could be subjected to forced indignities. Such incidents have never been proved.

The sheriff recommended that a contract with Alameda County be renewed. This contract, started last year, would allow Marin inmates to be accommodated in Alameda at $2.85 per day.

About six to a dozen work furlough inmates leave jail each morning and report in at night, at which time each must be searched carefully. If work furlough men could be kept separately from the rest, the work of the jailers would be greatly simplified, the sheriff said.

Over crowded jail conditions reflected in these figures compiled by Chief Jailer Christ. In March, 1957, 1,538 inmates were handled in the county jail. The average was 49 per day. In March of last year, 1,867 inmates were recorded, for a daily average of 60. Last month, the jail accommodated 2,276 inmates, or an average of 73 per day.

The one-day record is 89, posted last month. Bed capacity is 65, which means the balance must sleep on the floor.

The supervisors asked the sheriff, the county administrator and the public works director to check jail facilities and make their recommendation.

Corte Madera Raises Pay Of Employees

2 1/2 Per cent Hike For All Workers Passed In 3-2 Vote

By 3-2 vote, the Corte Madera Town Council last night granted all town employees a blanket 2 1/2 per cent pay increase for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brawford estimated the pay hike will cost approximately $1,900, exclusive of annual merit increases.

Councilmen Walter S. Long and Edward W. Colthurst voted "no," arguing that a 2 1/2 per cent boost should go only to those employees who have reached the last pay step in their salary ranges.

COMPETITIVE LEVEL

Initially, the council majority spoke in terms of a cost-of-living increase. But as the meeting progressed, they shied away from the phrase, deciding the blanket raise should be designed to maintain the town's salary structure at a competitive level with other cities in the county.

A motion by Councilman William R. Hansen originally called for an upward adjustment "to reflect devaluation of the dollar." As amended by him, and adopted, it was "to reflect competitive conditions." Voting with him were Mayor Roger F. Morse and Councilman Albert E. Kogler.

QUERY BY LONG

Earlier, Long asked Hansen what his position on salaries would be next year if the cost of living took a tumble.

"Under equal conditions," Hansen replied, "I wouldn't have any qualms about going down 2 1/2 per cent if the cost of living index goes down 2 1/2 per cent."

When the adjourned regular meeting opened, Brawford submitted recommendations calling for selective pay hikes totaling $2,592. But as the council moved toward an across-the-board increase the town manager became enthusiastic.

He conceded he had "hesitated to think in these terms" and added, "I think, frankly, this would arrive at a better program than the one I have laid before you."

BIGGER INCREASE

Colthurst and Long said they felt 5 per cent annual merit increases for employees below the last pay step were enough to include cost of living considerations. This raise, plus the blanket increase, would give some a 7 1/2 per cent pay hike, they pointed out.

For that reason, they argued, only those in the top pay steps, who have no more merit increases coming, should get the 2 1/2 per cent increase.

Hansen and Mayor Morse said it would be a mistake to tie cost of living to merit increases. But both later agreed

Senate Overrides President's Veto

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate voted by a slim margin today to override President Eisenhower's veto of a bill stripping Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson of his authority over Rural Electrification loans. (Earlier story on page 5.)

The roll call vote was 64 to 29, two votes more than the necessary two-thirds margin. The measure, which Eisenhower rejected only yesterday, was sent to the House where a two-third majority also is needed to override.

Deputies Destroy Marijuana 'Farm'

Thriving Crop Found On W. Marin Ranch

A thriving crop of marijuana sprouting on a secluded Northwest Marin ranch, which would have yielded an estimated $200,000 harvest by September, was literally nipped in the bud by sheriff's deputies yesterday.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos reported today his men had kept the 25-square-foot plot under surveillance for three weeks in an effort to nab the grower. The person responsible failed to show up, although Undersheriff Eugene Meyer and Inspector Richard Argento maintained an almost nightly vigil. While the officers watched it, the crop sprouted from seeds to a thriving patch of about 300 plants three inches tall.

This is the first known case of marijuana growing outdoors in Marin, the undersheriff said. The last report of marijuana "farming" came in January, See FARM, page 4

Herter In Paris, Confident Of Western Unity

PARIS (UPI) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter plunged into the first major challenge of his new job today and said he was confident the Western powers would meet the Russians at the Geneva conference "with unity and firmness of purpose."

Herter's job will be to try to weld a solid Western front for the foreign ministers conference.

He was brimming with confidence as he stepped off a U.S. Air Force plane and predicted, "We shall be able to agree wholeheartedly on the course we must follow in our common interest."

At the same time Herter admitted that different viewpoints existed among the Western powers. "It is only natural" that these somewhat different points of view exist on the East-West crisis, he said.

Herter spoke briefly to reporters on arrival for a formal conference tomorrow with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and West Germany on the package program they will present to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko in Geneva May 11.

Herter flew in from Washington at noon and scheduled a conference with President Charles de Gaulle almost at once.

Anti-Annexation Meeting Tonight In Terra Linda

A public meeting has been set for tonight by the Terra Linda Community Services District to start petitions backing the Dixie School District in its recent stand against annexation of 35 acres of its territory to the City of San Rafael.

The meeting, to be held at 8 p.m. at Hoffman School in Terra Linda, will also ask for community support to back the Dixie district in its request to the San Rafael High School District board of trustees to oppose the annexation.

John P. Nornle, president of the services district board of directors, said it will be an "informational" meeting. "The board has previously taken a stand against annexation of Terra Linda to any city," he said.

Marin Hospital 6th In Priority List For Funds

Marin County Hospital District is sixth on the priority list for allocation of 1959-60 Hill-Burton Act funds for California hospitals, Administrator S. Ames Pence, said today.

Pence said if the district wishes to apply for Hill-Burton money, it must do so by May 31, stating the specific amount desired. The Advisory Hospital Council has the final say on all applications.

District directors are considering asking Marin voters to approve a bond issue this year to help finance construction of a new wing for Marin General Hospital. The matter may come up at a meeting of the board at 8 o'clock tonight in the staff lounge at Marin General Hospital.

The Babcock Memorial Foundation recently granted the district $500,000 toward such a project. This sum could be applied along with federal-state Hill-Burton money and local funds for hospital expansion.

The district's last two bond issues narrowly failed to win a two-thirds majority necessary for passage. Last year, the district stood fourth on the Hill-Burton priority list for California hospitals.

It has been estimated that with the help of Babcock and Hill-Burton funds, a local bond issue this year might be only about half the $950,000 sought in 1958.

Marin's Probation Reports Could Be Better, Says State

Probation reports — vitally important to both juvenile and adult offenders — could be much better than they are in Marin County, according to a 58-page report on Marin's probation department prepared by the California Adult Authority.

Blame for the situation is placed on overwork and understaffing.

The report was presented today to the county board of supervisors.

The over-all conclusion of the two-month survey was: "The Marin County Probation Department is generally in satisfactory condition (but) certain deficiencies do exist."

The trouble with the probation reports boiled down to one thing: Inadequate reporting.

Clare Luce Approved As Brazil Envoy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate by a top-heavy vote today confirmed Mrs. Clare Boothe Luce's nomination as ambassador to Brazil.

Approval of the nomination climaxed a long and bitter fight by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) against the appointment of the 56-year-old playwright, former congresswoman and former ambassador to Italy.

Morse, in a final appeal, urged fellow Democrats to oppose her on account of a 1944 campaign speech in which Mrs. Luce charged that President Franklin D. Roosevelt "lied us into war."

County To Call Ambulance Service Bids

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today instructed County Administrator Donald A. Jensen to call for bids for ambulance service for the mentally ill and for non-emergency welfare cases.

The decision was made as Jack Lepinski of Novato announced he plans to start a new ambulance service in North Marin. The county now has an exclusive non-emergency agreement with United Ambulance Service in San Rafael.

The board informed Lepinski that it has no power to decide whether he can go into business, but advised him that he can bid on a contract with the county.

EMERGENCY CASES

Lepinski told the board he hopes to be able to handle emergency cases under an informal setup with the California Highway Patrol in which the nearest and fastest ambulance service can be called in accidents. He said he probably would help serve a new hospital in the Novato area.

Invitations to bid on the county ambulance needs will be issued in two separate contracts—one for non-emergency welfare cases, the other for mentally ill patients who must be transported to Napa State Hospital for observation.

CHANGE SUGGESTED

One change was suggested in Jensen's proposal submitted to the board today: That only one ambulance be required by a bidding company instead of two.

It was thought originally that two would be required so that two cases could be handled at the same time, but at the suggestion of Supervisor William D. Fusselman, this was dropped.

Marin Coed Wins Award From CSF

Deanna Denman of San Rafael, Marin Catholic High School senior, was awarded the $300 Seymour Award of the California Scholarship Federation for Northern California in Sacramento Saturday.

Miss Denman is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Denman of 19 Pine street.

The Seymour Award is offered students outstanding in intellectual abilities, leadership and service accomplishments. Candidates must be life members of the California Scholarship Federation. The federation has about 35,000 members in 528 California schools.

Miss Denman was notified early this month that she had been selected as one of eight semi-finalists. Saturday, she participated with other semi-finalists in a group interview and received the award.

'Beat Generation Minister' Will Talk At Seminary

Pierre Henri Delattre, pastor of the "Bread and Wine Mission" in the North Beach section of San Francisco, will be guest speaker at a San Francisco Theological Seminary assembly at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Rev. Delattre, often called the "minister of the beat generation," will clarify the anti-thesis for institutionalized religion, which he feels is the basis for the spiritual revolt of his parishers. He says he has found that "coffee houses and taverns permit more honest relationships between people than churches do."

Delattre was ordained into the Presbyterian ministry in 1955 after serving as interim minister at the Stinson Beach Community Presbyterian Church for a year.

In 1958, with the help of the Board of Home Missions of the Congregational Church, he set about to organize and maintain the "Bread and Wine Mission" for the artistic, intellectual and so-called "beat" community in North Beach.

Audubon Society To Elect Officers

New officers for the Marin Audubon Society will be elected at the group's meeting at 8 p.m. Friday in Room 40, College of Marin, Kentfield—the last monthly meeting to be held until September.

Three color films entitled "Watershed Wildlife," "Wildlife and the Human Touch" and "Water for the West" will be shown at the public meeting.

Plans will also be made that evening for the society's next field trip, beginning at 9 a.m. Saturday near the entrance to Doran County Park, south of Bodega Bay in Sonoma County.

Assembly Passes Bill Putting State In Water Business

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly passed and sent to the Senate today a constitutional amendment which would put state in the water business.

Vote on the measure in the lower house was 62-16.

The proposal was authored by Assemblyman Carley V. Porter (D-Compton) and does four things:

1. Adopts as a statement of policy that the state is in the water business.

2. Provides for submission to the voters of a general obligation bond issue of about one billion dollars to finance a water program.

3. Specifies that the bond money shall be spent to construct and complete the Feather River Project as presently authorized.

4. Says that any contract made by the state for the sale of water cannot be changed except by a two-thirds vote of both houses of the Legislature or by mutual agreement of the contracting parties.

Before passing the Porter amendment the House voted down two amendments.

One by Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-Los Gatos) would have stripped from the bill the provision for the issuance and sale of bonds to finance the water program. The assembly voted that down 61-12.

A few minutes later the Assembly on a vote of 58-15 turned down amendments by Assemblyman Edwin L. Z'berg (D-Sacramento) which would have prohibited the state from making contracts for sale of water or power without consent of a majority of the two houses of the Legislature.

Plumber Wins $6,791 For Crash Injuries

Novato plumber Glenn Lee Hall, 42, who asked for more than $150,000 for injuries suffered in an auto accident in 1957, won a jury verdict for $6,791.02 last night.

The jurors heard the case before Judge N. Charles Brunsatori in Marin Superior Court for one week, then deliberated for about three hours before reaching a decision.

Hall had sued San Rafael contractor Everett T. Murphy for an accident which occurred on Highway 101 in Novato on Sept. 12, 1957. Hall, driving across the highway, contended the Diablo-Long intersection light was in his favor when Murphy's northbound car hit his broadside.

Hall asked for $150,000 for severe head injuries, plus loss of wages and medical costs. The verdict approximates the wage loss and medical cost claimed by Hall.

San Francisco attorney Jack Burnham represented Hall. Richard Bettini defended Murphy.

Report Cards: They Matter Most To Teen-Ager Aiming At College

We'll be getting report cards again soon—reports which tell us how our youngsters are doing. I dread them. Even when they're good they make me uneasy. So much depends on report cards.

Do you have children in high school? Their grades matter most. A's and B's will ease them into college. D's and F's will keep them out. Elementary school report cards usually are easier to understand. They're important. But they don't have the far-reaching effects of the high school cards.

Are report cards accurate? Probably. Teachers try to be fair. But remember, they are human. The cards actually tell you only what the teacher thinks is true. She could be wrong. If you have doubts, be sure to see her about it.

Why do children in the same family get such different report cards? Because they are different children. They have different minds, different habits, different attitudes. They work under different conditions, with different teachers. Don't put pressure on your slow-learning youngster. He may be working harder than your brighter one and still get bad grades. All you can ask is that each child keep trying.

Vacationing? Stop Home Delivery

When you go on vacation, don't let newspapers and milk bottles accumulate on the front steps or yard—it would be like an open invitation to burglars and vandals.

This warning came today from Undersheriff Eugene Meyer. He pointed out that home delivery of newspapers and milk should be temporarily halted during the vacation period, or a neighbor should be asked to pick up the deliveries each day.

"Don't create a temptation to burglary," the undersheriff warned.

Do you overemphasize report cards? The cards are important, but they aren't the only things that matter. Don't keep a child with a bad report card in the doghouse too long. Be sure you offer a practical way for him to get out of it. Don't give big rewards for good reports either. They stress the cards too much. Try not to let any report card upset your family love and companionship. Remember that the children who get inferior report cards often turn out to be fine, responsible adults.

Clubwomen Ask Curb On Pornography

FRESNO (AP)—An emergency resolution was presented to the California Federation of Women's Clubs by its Resolution Committee today asking both state and national legislatures to adopt more effective legislation to control pornographic literature.

One measure sought is a stronger law prohibiting circulation of obscene literature through the mails.

Among 23 emergency resolutions offered, only three could be approved under the club's constitution.

A second asks appointment of a legislative committee to look into treatment of inmates of the Camarriah Mental Institution south of Bakersfield.

A third resolution asks continued support of the Un-American Activities committee.

Action on resolutions is scheduled for tomorrow's sessions of federation, which opened business meetings today.

Hearing Set On Apartment Zoning

A public hearing on a controversial request for apartment rezoning of four lots in Sunnyside Terrace was set by the Corte Madera Town Council last night for 8 p.m. on May 18.

The town planning commission has recommended the rezoning, which would permit developers Carl S. Vella and Cleland O. Whitton to build 18 apartment units. Now zoned for duplexes, the four lots front Redwood avenue on the west side of the town park.

A group of Sunnyside Terrace residents opposing the zoning change are planning to circulate a petition for presentation to the council.

Car Turn Signal Measure Dies

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Legislation which would have required motorists to give hand turn signals even in their automobiles were equipped with sign lights has died a quiet death in the Assembly Transportation Committee.

The bill was sent to an interim committee yesterday for two years of study after the author, Assemblyman Don Mulford (R-Berkeley), said the subject needed examination.

Mulford said he introduced the bill because he believed the turn signal law—especially the part about left turns—was "imperfect."

Apartments On Civic Center Site Postponed

G. B. Cunningham has postponed indefinitely his plan to build a four-unit apartment building on property the Corte Madera Town Council has laid out for a future civic center site.

The council learned this last night from Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow. It accepted his recommendation that the town make no move to acquire the land until it becomes necessary to prevent construction of apartments.

Councilman Walter S. Long said the property, which lies just north of the town hall annex, already has been condemned by the town "in a sense."

Mayor Roger F. Morse said he wants Cunningham to get a fair price when the town is ready to buy.

The Marin County Appraisal Commission last year valued the parcel at $4,000. Councilman William R. Hansen noted it has no street access. He said it should be worth $4,500 if considered a part of an adjoining parcel through which access could be provided.

THERE'S A STORY BEHIND IT— Linda Campbell and Nancy Schnell are interested onlookers as Russell Elmore tells about his exhibit at Larkspur-Corte Madera School. The reproduction of a Salvadorean "finca" which Russell made is adorned with mementoes that have an interesting but tragic history. (Independent-Journal photo)

DRAMA IN EL SALVADOR

Aspiration, Tragedy Lie Behind School Exhibit

Stories of high endeavor, an unfulfilled dream and a murder lie behind one of the Public Schools Week exhibits in Mrs. Lucille Cordeiro's sixth grade classroom at Larkspur-Corte Madera School.

Prepared by 11-year-old Russell Elmore of 10 Shady Lane, Larkspur, the display portrays the tiny Latin American nation of El Salvador.

It includes small figures in colorful hand-woven costumes, clay pots, bright belts and silver filigree earrings, all given to Russell by his aunt, Mrs. Alice Beardsley of San Francisco.

In addition, Russell is displaying a model of a typical finca, or farmhouse, of El Salvador. He built it himself.

The stories behind the exhibit go back several years, when Russell's aunt was a high school teacher in San Francisco.

Among the pupils in her English class was Martha Carbonell, a young school teacher from San Salvador, capital of El Salvador. Besides a desire to learn English, her main purpose in visiting the United States was to gather information about the operation of American public schools, particularly at the kindergarten level.

Senora Carbonell hoped to use this information as the basis for modernization and expansion of the kindergarten system of her own country. She and Mrs. Beardsley became close friends.

After she retired, Mrs. Beardsley flew to San Salvador at the invitation of Senora Carbonell and was a guest at her "finca." She quickly became interested in her friend's effort to bring American teaching ideas to the schools of the country.

The project was limping because no funds were available to buy equipment needed to put the program across. Mrs. Beardsley decided to pitch in and help.

Together, the two women raised enough money to finance a buying trip to San Francisco. There, Mrs. Beardsley purchased play equipment, books, educational toys and writing and drawing materials. She shipped them to Senora Carbonell's experimental kindergarten and returned later to find the class well under way.

In the second year of the experiment, tragedy struck.

Senora Carbonell stepped out of her office one day and found herself directly in the path of two young fugitives from the police. The officers were only a few yards behind.

One of the terrified boys had a knife clenched in his hand. Senora Carbonell was an obstruction in the path of his flight. He plunged the knife into her heart, killing her almost instantly.

Shocked and grieved, Mrs. Beardsley returned to San Francisco. In her suitcase were dozens of souvenirs she had gathered during her long stay in El Salvador.

Many of these articles are on display in the Public Schools Week exhibit of her young nephew, who is a son of Mrs. Werner Boehm. They may be seen at an open house tonight from 7:30 to 9 o'clock and will remain on display the rest of the week.

Cuyahoga County, Ohio, which includes Cleveland, leads all other counties in the country in the amount of vegetable gardens under glass.

Corte Madera Store Sets Sales Event

Village Floor Covering of Corte Madera will celebrate its third anniversary and grand reopening Thursday, Friday and Saturday by offering a half-price sale at its new location at 30 Corte Madera avenue.

Owner Ray Wehr said the 50 per cent reductions will apply to a wide variety of items. Store hours are 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays and Saturdays.

Wehr carries nationally advertised brands of carpeting, linoleum, wallpaper and interior and exterior paint, plus a large stock of decorator supplies. The latter include Shoji screens, shutters, metal moldings and plastic coverings. Village Floor Covering's new quarters have about 2,000 square feet of space, approximately double that of the former location at 30 Tamalpais drive.

"We needed room to expand the business, add a more complete selection and expedite service," Wehr said.

Louis Bouteiller assists Wehr as a color consultant.

County Urged To Protest Freitas Ranch Annexation

The Board of Supervisors may decide Monday whether to protest the proposed 1,090-acre annexation of Freitas Ranch lands by San Rafael.

The board today delayed action on the matter to study whether it will have legal grounds for a protest, which was requested by the board of trustees of the Dixie School District.

Walter J. Doll, clerk of the Dixie board, told the supervisors the school district protests the annexation because it is felt there will be inadequate recreation and fire protection, and that the population density might be so great that the district could not support schools without higher taxes.

Doll asked the board to oppose the move on the basis that the county owns property in the area. The property consists of two roads: Manual Freitas Parkway and Las Ranchitos road.

Budget Hearings Start Tomorrow

The county board of supervisors tomorrow will commence daily public hearings on the proposed county budget for the fiscal year 1959-60.

Copies of the proposed budget were sent out to individual members of the board over the weekend. The new budget shows an increase from $10,135,556 to $11,413,551, and an estimated tax increase of approximately nine cents.

The board plans to hold hearings every day this week.

Businessmen Urged To Get Into Politics

WASHINGTON (UP) — The chairmen of both major political parties urged businessmen to get into politics today and to concern themselves with issues such as education as well as those which affect business.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, Republican chairman, and Democratic Chairman Paul M. Butler addressed a luncheon session of the 47th annual meeting of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson in another session suggested the way to balance the federal budget for the long range is by action to increase the nation's wealth.

THIRD WAY
Johnson said the budget can be balanced by cutting spending or raising taxes but that: "There is a third way and it does not involve wild-eyed or impractical schemes. It involves prudent, bold and imaginative action to increase the wealth of America. It involves prudent steps to release the full productive capacity of men and machines."

Johnson predicted that Congress would reduce President Eisenhower's appropriations requests for fiscal 1960 but made no forecast about actual spending, which is what determines whether the budget is balanced.

URGES ACTIVITY
Butler conceded that more businessmen are Republicans than Democrats, but urged them to get active in politics anyway and to choose their party not on the basis of a single issue or solely because of business interests.

He suggested that businessmen should be just as interested in community education, neighborhood parks and the growth of their city, state and country as in business issues. Morton said businessmen should be concerned not only with political issues affecting business but broader problems which concern all citizens.

The GOP spokesman also warned that the two-party system would be jeopardized if either party should be controlled by a single special interest.

He said if the Democrats should become the party of labor and the Republicans the party of business, "inevitably there would emerge a number of new splinter parties."

Warren McGuire said it could only be a policy decision by the board. He said it is doubtful if the county owns lands that can qualify for a protest.

However, he added the county can file a protest for any reason, and it would be up to the San Rafael City Council on the advice of its attorney whether the protest would be valid.

Supervisor Vera Schultz expressed some concern that the county would be losing sales tax funds from a new shopping center in the proposed annexation area.

This could not be used as a basis of a protest, McGuire said.

The San Rafael City Council will hold a public hearing on the annexation at 8 p.m. Monday.

SAN ANSELMO EXTENDS ITS SALES EVENT

San Anselmo merchants have decided to make their annual "bargain days" a double-barreled event this year. The San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce has scheduled not one but two times for bargain days: July 16-18 and Oct. 1-3.

About 40 merchants join in to promote the concerted sales. Special bargains are offered during the three-day event. Free baby-sitting service and children's matinees at the Tamalpais Theater have been provided for the offspring of "bargain day" shoppers in the past.

FARM

1956, when the district attorney and Larkspur police found several plants growing under a basement sun lamp in a Larkspur home.

Inspector Argento, chief of the narcotics division of the sheriff's office, reported the marijuana would have grown to 12 or 16 feet by September.

"We decided to destroy it now before they started to seed," Argento said. "We would have had a mountain full of marijuana. Once they start to seed and scatter, they are almost impossible to get rid of."

Undersheriff Meyer estimated that the crop would have yielded a bale or two of marijuana, amounting to several hundred pounds.

About 1,000 cigarettes can be rolled from a pound of marijuana. The cigarettes retail for about $1 each.

The ranch is described as pastureland owned by a well-known rancher, who knew nothing about the illicit crop. Argento said he promised to keep the rancher's name and location in confidence because the rancher cooperated in allowing the seed to sprout and the plot to be kept under surveillance in hope of catching the culprit.

The case began April 3 when an anonymous tipster awakened Argento at his home about 1 a.m. Argento went to the ranch, found the plot camouflaged under pine needles and leaves, and notified the owner.

It was located in a seldom-visited meadow on the large pastureland. The inspector said the rancher was shocked and wanted it destroyed right away.

After three weeks of stake-out, Undersheriff Meyer said he believes the grower has left the county.

Deputies used brush burners to destroy the patch.

Inspector Argento issued an appeal to all citizens of Marin for any information on narcotics and users. "We promise to keep such information in the strictest confidence in order to stamp out narcotics in the county," Argento declared.

Employee Foils Cigarette Thieves

Two youths almost got away with 120 cartons of cigarettes from a panel truck parked next to the Butterworth Tobacco Co. warehouse on San Rafael's Third street last night.

But James B. Clahan, employee of Butterworth, spotted them in time to save the two cases, each containing 60 cartons. The youths fled, one on foot and the other in a car, leaving the cases abandoned on the east side of the Butterworth building.

Clahan spotted the would-be thieves about 5:50 p.m.

Miss Marin Contestant Withdraws

The "Miss Marin" field was reduced to nine contestants today, because Dominican Upper School will not allow its students to participate in a bathing beauty competition.

Sharon Ghilotti of San Anselmo, Dominican senior whose picture as a contestant in the "Miss Marin" event appeared in yesterday's Independent Journal, was withdrawn last night by her mother, Mrs. William Ghilotti. Sharon dropped out after her school informed her parents that the Dominican sisters prefer their students distinguish themselves in other ways than by entering beauty contests.

Dick Miller, contest chairman, scheduled a meeting this afternoon with the Dominican Upper School principal to "try to explain what our contest is." However, school officials said Dominican students are forbidden to enter any contest in which the entrants "must parade in bathing suits."

Mrs. Ghilotti said a Junior Chamber representative had told her the contest was approved by the school. This was news to the Dominican sisters. No such approval had been granted, the school announced.

A bathing suit parade is part of the Miss Marin pageant to be staged at Bermuda Palms on May 16. One of the nine girls remaining will be named "Miss Marin" on the basis of beauty, poise, personality and talent, and will enter the "Miss California" competition the following month at Santa Cruz. There will be a bathing suit parade there, also.

with Long that 5 per cent merit raises should be reappraised.

The council decided to undertake the reappraisal after Brandow has submitted a revised set of salary recommendations reflecting last night's 3-2 decision. Morse said the over-all increase might "wipe out the necessity for some of these range increases" which Brandow recommended.

Brandow also was asked to study the duties of Public Works Supt. Frank Reis, who handed the council a letter requesting advancement to a salary range paying up to $543 per month. The manager recommended no raise for Reis, who draws $481 in the top step of his present range.

Reis' letter said his work load and responsibilities are "more inclusive" than his job title indicates.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market declined in lively trading late this afternoon as profits were taken.

Volume for the day was estimated at four million shares compared with 3,850,000 yesterday.

Pivotal issues lost fractions to about a point. Wider losses occurred among some of the space age stocks which have had big gains recently. At the same time, some electronics issues forged ahead as interest rotated to previously neglected issues.

Zenith, a 14-point gainer yesterday, gyrated between a gain of about 10 and a loss of around eight. It was slightly on the upside in late dealings.

Litton Industries dropped about five. Brunswick-Balke about three and Texas Instruments around two.

Radio Corp., Philco and International Telephone were active and up about a point each. General Tire spurred about five and Hoffman Electronics more than three.

Lukens Steel and Du Pont were about two points ahead. Merck dropped nearly three. Pfizer was off about three.

Baltimore and Ohio dropped more than a point.

U.S. government bonds were steady to fractionally higher.

Marinite's Mother Succumbs In S.F.

Mrs. Lilian Moskowitz, mother of Mrs. Geri Brownstein of Larkspur, died in a San Francisco hospital yesterday after several years of failing health. She was 56.

A resident of Daly City, Mrs. Moskowitz was the widow of Harry Moskowitz, who died four years ago.

She is survived by two daughters and two sons, Mrs. Brownstein, who is the wife of Dr. Martin Brownstein, Sausalito dentist; Mrs. Shirley Guaraldi, Sidney and Marvin Glass and a brother, Hyman Goldstein.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 p.m. Thursday at Sinai Memorial Chapel in San Francisco. Memorial contributions may be made to the Heart or Cancer Fund.

Nellie Pettigrew Last Rites Held

Private funeral services were held today at Williams Mortuary in San Rafael for Mrs. Nellie Pettigrew, 76, of 131 Laurel place, San Rafael.

She died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness. A native of Texas, she came to Marin two years ago and lived with her daughter, Mrs. Mae L. James.

Services were scheduled at 2 p.m., followed by burial in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

State Approves Novato Hospital; Financing Is All But Official

The planning program for a private hospital in Novato has been approved by the state and financing has been verbally committed, directors of the Novato General Hospital Corp. were told today.

Approval was received yesterday by Dr. Ralph Weseman of Novato, corporation chairman, from the Bureau of Hospitals, state Department of Public Health, for the corporation's plan to build a one-story hospital, to include 30 beds for medical-surgical-obstetrical care, eight bassinets, one major surgery, one minor surgery, an obstetrical department, X-ray and laboratory facilities and administrative facilities.

Cost of the hospital is estimated at $420,000, including the price of land — 7.8 acres at Hill and Canyon roads, Novato, already purchased by the corporation.

Dr. Weseman said financing is being arranged through the federal Small Business Administration and the First National Bank in San Rafael. The money has been committed verbally, he said, but final commitment must await approval by the lending agencies of architect's drawings for the hospital.

With state approval in hand, the board today signed a contract with San Francisco architect George T. Rockrise to draw the plans.

Dr. Weseman estimated construction of the hospital can start within six months.

In the interim, Novatans will vote May 26 on a proposal that the North Marin area secede from the Marin County Hospital District. One reason advanced in support of the secession proposal has been that financing for a private hospital in the area would be more readily available if the area is not part of a hospital district.

OBITUARIES

Leader Of Society For Crippled Dies

Warren E. Griffith, executive director of the California Society for Crippled Children and Adults and a resident of Marin County for 20 years, died late yesterday in a Los Angeles hospital after suffering a heart attack at a noon meeting. He was 70 years old.

Griffith had flown to Los Angeles yesterday morning to attend the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County board of directors meeting.

He made his home at 55 Walnut drive in Larkspur since coming to the Bay Area to accept the executive director's position. The California Society for Crippled Children and Adults, which is the statewide Easter Seal agency, has its headquarters in San Francisco.

A past president of the San Francisco Rotary Club, Griffith became interested in the crippled children's agency through Rotary work. The Rotary Clubs of California founded the California Society for Crippled Children in 1926.

Under his leadership local societies were established in 49 California counties to aid youngsters. Griffith was considered an authority in philanthropic fund-raising, also, having built the state Easter Seal campaign from $40,000 in 1940 to $1,300,000 this year.

He was born in Rushville, Ill., and completed his education at Oberlin College in Ohio. He spent 20 years in the automobile business in Toledo, Ohio, and while there served as president of the Toledo Chamber of Commerce and of the National Automobile Dealers Assn.

The Griffiths came to California in 1930. He was in business in Los Angeles when he accepted the post with the crippled children's society. He had planned to retire August 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffith celebrated their golden wedding last Sept. 9.

Griffith was a director of the San Francisco Boy Scout Council and of Avery-Fuller

Children's Center, San Francisco; chairman of the California State Coordinating Committee for Federal Services Campaign for the National Health Agencies, and a member of the advisory council of California State Vocational Rehabilitation Services of the Bureau of Crippled Children's Services of the California Department of Health.

In addition to his wife Gertrude, he is survived by two sons, Army Col. Dexter Griffith, stationed in St. Louis, Mo., and Air Force Col. Stebbins Griffith, stationed in North Africa; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services will be held at the White Mortuary in Azusa at 10 a.m. Thursday. Memorial contributions may be made to the Crippled Children's Fund.

Plan To Ease Prison Jam Moves Ahead

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A plan to cut down prison crowding in California and to employ prison inmates gainfully is moving ahead at a rapid pace, it was reported to Gov. Edmund G. Brown today.

Director of Corrections Richard McGee and Director of Natural Resources Dewitt Nelson outlined the program at a governor's council meet and said that by the end of this year there will be approximately 1,800 inmates in prison work camps as compared with 995 at the beginning of the year.

"We have about 4,000 more men in our correctional institutions, than they were designed to hold," said McGee. "Every man we can move out to these prisons helps ease the problem."

"Most of the men are young—under 28—and have had little work experience. If they are kept in an institution they are further ingrained in habits of idleness."

"We hope to have 18 camps with 80 men each by the end of this year," Nelson said, "plus three mobile camps to 40 men each to give us greater flexibility."

"Under the program the men will engage in stream improvement, firebreak construction, reforestation, tree surgery, fire-fighting and erosion control work."

There are eight large ski areas in California's national forests.

BOOZE, NOT FIZZWATER, IS CULPRIT

ANAHEIM (UPI)—The occupants of a car which struck another car, injuring two persons, identified themselves as Harold L. Booze and Patrick Fizzwater, both of Long Beach.

Booze was charged with drunken driving. Fizzwater was released.

Poets To Visit Writing Class

Two nationally known Marin County poets will be special guests at meetings of the College of Marin's adult class in poetry and creative writing appreciation.

They are Rosalie Moore of Fairfax, who will read a selection of her poems to the class tomorrow night, and Jeanne McGahey of Santa Venetia, who will present a group of her works the night of May 13.

Miss Moore is a winner of several Guggenheim Awards. Miss McGahey's poetry was first published in 1940 in a book titled, "Five Young American Poets." Both are frequent contributors to national magazines.

Taught by Lawrence Hart, the adult class meets every Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Room 26 of the College Science Building.

Demos Think They Can Override Veto By Ike

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional Democrats figured today they have a good chance of handing President Eisenhower his first setback on a veto.

They said they believed they could muster the two-thirds vote required in both the Senate and House to override Eisenhower's disapproval yesterday of a Rural Electrification Administration bill.

Congress has never overridden an Eisenhower veto in his more than six years in the White House. In most cases, the legislators haven't even tried because of the odds against success.

But Democrats served notice they were prepared to fight over his rejection of the measure to strip Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson of authority over REA loans.

The Senate gets first crack at the presidential veto. The Senate Democratic Policy Committee has not decided whether to move to override, but backers of the bill were confident the attempt would be made.

Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) told newsmen there was a good chance the House would vote to override the veto. Democratic whip Carl Albert (Okla.) agreed, but said he anticipated a hard fight.

The bill amends both 1939 and 1953 reorganization plans for the REA. In vetoing it, Eisenhower said the REA has worked well and progressed efficiently under the present setup.

Two Plead Innocent To Sex Perversion

Two men arrested in the restroom at a San Rafael tavern three weeks ago pleaded innocent yesterday to charges of sex perversion.

Samuel Lloyd Gordon, 28, a San Anselmo drapery installer, waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to Marin Superior Court.

Donald Franklin Davis, 41, radio announcer from Tiburon, will appear in Marin Municipal Court on May 4 to have his preliminary hearing date set.

Wage Measure Killed In First Brown Defeat

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The hissing and booing of a jam-packed audience was the funeral march yesterday for Gov. Edmund G. Brown's minimum wage bill.

It was the first major defeat for Brown in his bid for a many-sided program on labor, water and taxes.

Upward of 400 persons, using all sitting and standing room in the two-story committee room, saw the seven-man Senate Labor Committee send the wage measure out for a two-year interim study.

Chairman Robert I. Montgomery (D-Hanford) said later "I don't think the measure is dead. But it certainly has no chance to get anywhere this session."

Toward the end of the three-and-a-half-hour hearing, Sen. Richard Richards (D-Los Angeles) told the committee that "there are those in the audience and on this committee who would oppose any bill of this type."

"Therefore, since it's going to be murdered, I want to see the bill in proper form when it goes down."

Richards proposed that the bill be amended to a $1.25 an hour minimum wage across the board. As the bill left the Assembly, farm workers were exempted from the $1.25 and written in at 90 cents an hour except for piece workers in certain cases. The committee killed Richards' motion.

Then the bill went to defeat on a 4-3 vote.

Farm workers and other proponents of the bill immediately broke into hissing and booing.

We Can't Afford To Lose North Bay Aqueduct Project

It should come as no surprise to the people of Marin and the other North Bay Counties that they face possible permanent loss of the proposed North Bay Aqueduct, the $30,000,000 ditch and pipeline which would bring water from Sacramento River to Marin County.

Yet to some, this statement by a state engineer to last weekend's State Chamber of Commerce meeting in Santa Rosa came as a shock.

The engineer had quite a bit to say in the short time he spoke. He said the aqueduct "has been undersold." By this he meant that the benefits of its installation are proving to be even greater than when the feasibility studies were made in 1957.

He might also have said, however, that the project has been undersold to the people of the four counties involved—Marin, Sonoma, Napa and Solano. The fact is they are hardly sold on it at all; they don't understand it.

The engineer pointed out that practically the entire distance of the 60-mile project runs through undeveloped land, but at the same time it is contiguous to highly developed land it will serve. There is a railroad and a major highway within two miles of it throughout its length. Towns and communities will soon expand over where much of it will run. Then it will be much more expensive, possibly too expensive, to construct.

Why has the state suddenly turned a cold shoulder to the project for which two years ago it earmarked $1,340,000? Because there has been a lack of local interest in the project. Support from local governmental agencies instead of being strong and consolidated, has been weak and wishy-washy—or sometimes lacking entirely.

The state has made studies of costs and financing methods. "We want to discuss these studies with you," the engineer pleaded.

Even if local people would express enough interest to invite the state water experts to Marin, to Sonoma, Napa and Solano to discuss these studies, to show a willingness to listen and question, it would be a step in the right direction.

We in Marin can't sit idly by and ignore a steady water supply for the future. We're going to need one. Why not seriously study what the North Bay Aqueduct has to offer? We can't afford to lose it without even considering it.

Moonlight in Marin

To us the hills and dales and trees and shrubs of this verdant county in which we live are almost always beautiful—but they seem to take on special unworldly beauty when bathed in silence and silvery moonlight.

Moonlight in Marin has a special ethereal quality, falling on trees and bushes, falling in pools on the grass and flowing to a secret sea. Among our botanical splendor, moonlight becomes an almost tangible silver liquid.

The mysteries held by a night bathed in moonlight are many. What glorious, untold secret lurks among its shadows?

Please Leave Our Little Dog Alone

EDITOR,

Independent-Journal:

A year ago we moved from San Francisco to Lagunitas and as we have considerable property, we decided to keep a dog. We have had him since he was five weeks old, he is now nine months.

To comply with the law of Marin County, we took him to a veterinarian for the required shots, including one for rabies, before we were able to get a license. We were under the impression that the license was to protect the dog and the owner. We hadn't been informed differently. Now we find the license doesn't mean a thing.

On March 24 our little dog was picked up and impounded. We were told "for his protection," at a cost to us of $2 to redeem him. They told us they don't charge for the first day, only the second. The dog was picked up a few blocks from home on the highway in the late afternoon. We got him before noon next day. Yet we were charged for the second day.

After getting the dog home, it took several days for him to get over being doped, which they had to do to keep him quiet.

On April 20, we were informed again that he was at the pound. We were told he was picked up at Woodacre. I doubt that very much. It is hard to believe he was that far away. To redeem him again will be another two dollars.

This seems to us to be a horrible shakedown. If the dog had done anything wrong, we could understand. What protection to us is the license?

Have read several letters on the subject from dog owners. . . . Must admit I sympathize with them for what seems unfair to dog lovers. Why does your dog catcher have to coax friendly little dogs into his truck? He has been watched doing it. Have information from other people who have had similar experiences, in one case their dog has been picked up four times.

During the daytime all dogs are free to roam around. But what the dog catcher doesn't know, and it would be well for him if he did, is that dogs who are the annoying ones and bark continually all night, you never hear of them being turned over to the pound. . . .

It doesn't give us an incentive to want to live in beautiful Marin County. Unless our little dog is returned to us without any further trouble, we have no desire to continue living here. We will go back to San Francisco where we belong. . . .

Headline Writer Implies Defeatism

EDITOR,

Independent-Journal:

Because I have heretofore been an admirer of your lively and generally fair reporting of all sides of controversial issues, I feel constrained to point out what I consider a gross misinterpretation of one of your reader's views in this (letters to the editor) section last week.

I have read Virginia O'Rourke's letter over several times and find in it nothing to lead to your headline "Lay Down Arms In Face Of Enemy?" In expressing her misgivings over the arming of Italy with atomic missiles and asking that the concept of the "balance of terror" orientation should be reexamined in the face of new developments in the military field she is in very distinguished company.

The recognition that there are alternative policies to the current stalemate does not, as your headline writer seems to imply, automatically assume that the alternative is defeatism.

The question of whether further expansion of the current programs for basing Thor and Jupiter missiles overseas is an efficient way to increase American retaliatory power is one that is being furiously argued by military experts. If overseas bases are considered too vulnerable for manned bombers, will not the same be true of missiles?

When the decision to retaliate must be made by many different governments, the possibility of accidental war is measurably increased, and once a missile is launched, there is no method of recall or deflection which are not subject to electronic failure.

Albert Wohlstetter, official of the Rand Corp., writing in the current issue of "Foreign Affairs" states that "viewed as a contribution to deterring all-out attack on the United States, the Thor and Jupiter bases seem unlikely to compare favorably with other alternatives. If newspaper references to hard bargaining by some of our future hosts are to be believed, it would seem that such negotiations have been conducted under misapprehensions on both sides as to the benefits to the United States."

Corte Madera's Attorney Wants City To Have Faith In Him—Or Someone Else

John Ehlen, Corte Madera's articulate town attorney, had plenty to articulate about at one point during last week's meeting of the town council.

Under discussion was the draft of an agreement, prepared by Ehlen at the council's request, for extension of Tamal Vista boulevard through the property of Charles E. Paganini, a 14-acre unincorporated "island."

The plan is bitterly opposed by several hundred residents of Madera Gardens. Among other things, they fear Tamal Vista will become a busy truck route.

WHAT GOT Ehlen's dander up was a request by opponents that his draft be submitted to the state attorney general's office for an opinion as to legality.

"Take it to the courts if you don't think it's legal," he snapped at Adolph Lubanersky, one of the opposition spokesmen. "File a taxpayers' suit, but don't try to bluff me with all this talk about an attorney general's opinion!"

"The attorney general," he said, "is probably wrong as often as he is right. I've had just as good a legal education as any attorney general, and I'm not bragging when I say that."

JUST GETTING warmed up, Ehlen asked his challengers if they had any idea to whom the attorney general referred a request for a legal opinion.

"I'll tell you," he said, answering his own question. "He gives it to some young attorney who has just escaped from law school. And they call that 'the attorney general's opinion.' My God!"

Ehlen told the council he had "no doubt—none at all" about the validity of the proposed Tamal Vista agreement, which Paganini has yet to approve.

"Either you have faith in your appointed legal adviser or you don't," he went on. "And if you don't, I suggest you start looking for someone else."

"I move a vote of confidence in our attorney," said Councilman William R. Hansen.

"I don't need a vote of confidence," Ehlen shot back.

"I'll withdraw my motion, then," said Hansen with a laugh.

AGAIN LASHING at the opposition delegation, Ehlen said, "I don't think the town of Corte Madera can build a wall around its corporate limits. The Paganini property is not a foreign country. It is part of the County of Marin. You can't build a Chinese wall around a community—not in this country."

When the dust settled, it was pointed out that the town would have control over the use of the proposed street extension and could, if it wished, ban commercial vehicles. It was also noted that under the agreement Paganini would be barred from putting his land to a wide variety of "objectionable" uses—from bag cleaning plants and hog ranches to manufacture of chewing tobacco, pickles, sauerkraut or vinegar. The list is a long one.

THE COUNCIL finally authorized Mayor Roger F. Morse to sign the agreement for an access route.

It also decided not to request an attorney general's opinion.

"Copies of the agreement will be available if anyone else wishes to do so," Morse told the audience.

Senate Action Helped Make Herter Strong Both Abroad And At Home

The unanimity and speed with which the Senate confirmed the nomination of Secretary Herter are impressive, and obviously they were meant to be. The Senate was repairing the damage caused by the fumbling and ungracious way in which the appointment was made.

It is not easy to explain why the President and Press Secretary James Hagerty did so much to create the impression that the appointment was being made reluctantly and with reservations.

A possible explanation is that the President was until the last moment under strong pressure from supporters of some rival for the office.

THIS IS AN unpleasant and embarrassing subject to discuss. But for the long run the explanation which will do the least damage is that the President avoided facing up to the grim facts until Dulles, who had tried to resign some weeks earlier, insisted that the President face up to them. The shock was great. Even then the President shrank from taking the final step of naming Dulles's successor.

During this hesitation he opened himself to pressure to appoint someone other than Herter.

The action of the Senators reflects not only their high opinion of Herter. They have also given notice to the President that he has a Secretary of State who carries great political weight, and is not to be treated as a minor underling.

THE SENATE has not only confirmed Herter for the office, but it has done all that it could do to confirm his influence after he is in the office.

Both abroad and at home this is salutary and important. In the complicated negotiations which Herter is conducting, it would be a fatal handicap if Dr. Adenauer or Gen. de Gaulle or Mr. Macmillan were given the impression that the Secretary of State does not have the confidence of the President, and that there is an appeal over his head through others who have the ear of the President.

The Senate has struck a mighty blow against such shenanigans. The unanimous support of the United States Senate is something that few of Herter's predecessors have ever enjoyed.

AT HOME, the action of the Senate is a useful offset to the thunder on the right. This thunder is still in the distance. But it is unmistakable. It is designed to intimidate him. The purpose of the intimidation is to prevent him from negotiating a modus vivendi—the theory being that in war, cold or hot, anything short of unconditional surrender is appeasement.

In times like these, the easiest and cheapest position for a politician or a public man is to demand the unconditional surrender of the adversary. The extreme position is often regarded by the glib, who do not know the difference between patriotism and patrioteering, as the bold and firm position.

BUT THE EXTREME position is a phony. It takes much more boldness and firmness and internal courage to be moderate and rational than to be a jingo and a verbal fire-eater.

Herter is a moderate and a rational man. For evidence of this, we have only to read his answers to the examinations by Sen. Morse before the Foreign Relations Committee. These answers are a model of how a statesman in a very powerful country ought to talk about the issues of life and death, and they reveal a moderation and a rationality which have their roots in an unfrightened and serene spirit.

Panama Charges Cuban Mercenary Force Preparing To Invade Nation

PANAMA (AP) — Panama last night charged that 300 or more Cubans hired by Panamanian revolutionaries are preparing to invade this Central American republic.

The government of President Ernesto de la Guardia appealed to other American states to help.

Minister of Government Jose D. Bazan told the National Assembly that two or three more invasions boatloads are being prepared in Cuba to bring to "about 400 the number of Cubans attempting to invade Panama."

Bazan indicated his information came from three captured members of a band of 86-including four Panamanians and 82 Cubans — who landed from Cuba in the jungle on Panama's east coast Saturday.

Three were drowned in the landing. The government claimed it was keeping a close air and sea watch on the remaining 80 members of the band. The invaders were reported moving slowly along the coast toward Panama City, more than 50 miles away.

One brief skirmish was reported between National Guardsmen in two landing barges and the invasion force on the beach. The government said casualties were inflicted on the Cubans.

An emergency meeting of the 21 members of the Organization of American States was called today in Washington to consider Panama's appeal for support in "resisting a foreign invasion." Panamanian Foreign Minister Miguel Moreno said the OAS might fly a group down to study the situation.

The United States announced it is supplying Panama's 3,000-man defense force with small arms to fight off invasion. Under the U. S. Mutual Security Act, any member of the OAS is eligible for small arms in an emergency.

The Panamanian government claims the movement to overthrow de la Guardia is headed and financed by Roberto Arias, son of ex-President Harmodio Arias and husband of British Ballerina Margot Fonteyn. He slipped ashore on the Pacific coast 10 days ago with a small band, eluded troops for six days and finally took refuge in the Brazilian Embassy in Panama City.

Theft Try Costs Art Lover $50

Just to admire the statue of Pan in Sausalito costs nothing, but to try to cart it off costs plenty, Harvey Miles Garrison Jr., 24, of San Francisco learned yesterday.

Judge Richard M. Sims of Marin Municipal Court fined Garrison $50 for trying to heist the 175-pound statue early Sunday. Garrison pleaded guilty to malicious mischief.

Sausalito police said Garrison had waded into the shallow pool and was struggling to get the statue into his station wagon when caught. He said he had his eye on the statue for a long time.

He May Ask For Stronger Labor Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower will publicly urge the House to approve a stronger labor reform bill than the one passed by the Senate last week, Republican congressional leaders said today.

The leaders predicted after a three-hour meeting with the President that, at his news conference tomorrow, he will share their view that the Senate's Kennedy-Ervin bill is "grossly inadequate" and that the House should take steps to remedy deficiencies in the bill.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen and House GOP leader Charles A. Halleck said of the President's public endorsement of a stronger labor reform bill that they did not want to speak for him. They said they preferred to leave this to Eisenhower himself.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty interjected that Eisenhower would have a news conference tomorrow morning, and he assumes that some reporter will ask about the labor bill.

Halleck said the administration found the Senate-approved bill lacking in three particular areas involving so-called black-mail picketing, loopholes in the law on secondary boycotts and removal of the federal government from labor-management disputes of strictly local nature.

The Senate Saturday approved, 90 to 1, a measure providing labor reforms including periodic secret elections of union officers, disclosure of union finances, barring of ex-convicts from union posts, a watered down "bill of rights" to strengthen the rights of rank-and-file unionists, as well as restrictions on handling of union trusteeship funds and loans of union funds to union members.

Castro Denies He's Backing Revolutions In Other Nations

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Fidel Castro, en route to Buenos Aires for a Latin American economic conference, said here last night he has no interest in promoting revolutions in other countries.

The bearded Cuban prime minister spiked reports that he and his brother, Raul, commander-in-chief of Cuba's armed forces, have been having disagreements.

Denying that he had any part in an attempted Panamanian revolution, Castro said that his only concern is in the Cuban revolution.

Earlier this week a small invasion force landed on the coast of Panama. Panamanian officials said several of those captured were Cubans and quoted them as saying Castro had encouraged them.

"We have not been helping any kind of movement in Panama," Castro told a news conference. "Our principle concern is only in the Cuban revolution."

Castro was greeted by a crowd of 1,000 persons, shouting "Fidel! Fidel!" when he arrived in Houston.

Waiting for him was Raul, who had flown in unannounced several hours earlier, amid reports from Cuba that the two brothers were in disagreement. Fidel said he had phoned Raul Sunday and asked him to meet him in Houston. He said he had been out of Cuba for 10 days and he wanted Raul's impressions of how things were going.

Tribe Of 700 Flees Iraq To Turkey

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — An entire Kurdish tribe of 700 persons fled from Iraq into Turkey yesterday because they disapproved of Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem's government, it was reported last night.

The Turkish Foreign Ministry refused to confirm or deny the report, but high security sources said the tribe had taken refuge at Semdinli in south-west Turkey after crossing the frontier from northern Iraq.

The name of the tribe was not given, but it was said to have supported the abortive Mosul revolt against the Kassem government last month.

Russia recently sent a shipload of Kurdish tribesmen from Soviet territory to Iraq. They were reported armed and trained in guerrilla warfare.

Hunt For Lynch Victim Widens

POPLARVILLE, Miss. (UPI) — Mississippi Gov. J. P. Coleman said today he has "excellent reason" to believe the abduction of an accused Negro rapist by a lynch mob will be solved.

Coleman gave no details of what prompted him to entertain such a belief because up to now there have been virtually no clues to the Saturday abduction.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents, along with state and local authorities, moved into nearby Louisiana and into counties surrounding Pearl River County, Miss., today in search of leads.

No trace of either the victim or his abductors has been reported.

Coleman told newsmen he does not know just when a break in the case will come but that he has "excellent reason" for saying there will be one.

The two-state search was begun yesterday. It was widened today after a meeting last night of more than 30 of the 40 FBI agents working on the case.

The widening of the search for Mack Charles Parker, 23, and his kidnapers began after authorities exhausted most leads in Pearl River County.

How the dollars we spend for telephone supplies benefit you

Pacific Telephone's purchases build sales for California businesses

As we work to provide phone service for a growing California, we buy an ever increasing volume of materials.

This year, for instance, we and our supply unit Western Electric, will purchase supplies and services of all kinds from thousands of California businesses—large and small. We'll spend an average of $850,000 with them every working day. This money brings new income to merchants and manufacturers. Then it spreads out to the people they employ or trade with. From there, it circulates until it benefits nearly everybody in the State.

In this way, telephone purchases help build California's prosperity. And that's bound to mean a brighter future for you.

Science Work On Display At Drake High

Academic and extra-curricular activities of students at Sir Francis Drake High School in San Anselmo will be on display at an open house from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Mrs. Harriet Crabb, dean of girls, is chairman of the faculty planning committee.

As many as 2,000 persons are expected to attend the show, she said, being held in conjunction with National Public Schools Week.

Displays will include a blood type analysis and pressure booth by physiology students, demonstrations by chemistry students, and other presentations in physics, biology and general science.

A musical program will be presented by a student woodwind ensemble; a ceramic demonstration will be given; sample readings will be delivered by a writer's workshop, and a student panel will discuss Charles Dickens' "Tale of Two Cities."

Also scheduled is a "Swim-O-Rama," synchronized swimming demonstration by a physical education class under direction of Jean Burns. Trampoline, tumbling, wrestling and volleyball also will be demonstrated.

A movie on child development will be followed by discussion with parents, senior students and students in the adult evening school.

Visitors will be guided by members of the California Scholarship Foundation chapter and Honor Crew.

Artists Talk To Tamites

Mrs. Stephen Dimitroff of Mill Valley, known in art circles as Lucienne Block, gave a talk on the technique of fresco painting to Tamalpais High School students. Films were shown on some of the works she and her husband have done in California. In addition, famous paintings of Revioro, one of the three most famous fresco painters in the United States, were shown. The Art Club sponsored the visit.

Also visiting Tam was Mrs. George (Lillian) Pohlmann, who addressed young student writers. Mrs. Pohlmann, wife of Tam history teacher George Pohlmann, is the author of "Myrtle Albertina's Song" and "Myrtle Albertina's Secret." A new book entitled "Love is not a Pie" will come out in the fall.

Classes Visit Prison, Courtroom

Tam students, who visited San Quentin Friday, are in court today. Charles Crawford's class in Problems of American Democracy today were to visit superior court sessions in San Rafael as well as other governmental functions. Cyril Beatie's class visited court last week.

Last Friday, Crawford and Cyril accompanied 50 Tam Senior boys to San Quentin. Like all persons who visit the prison, they had to be checked for any metal instruments that might be useful to a prisoner. They were also checked for denims because the prisoner's clothes are made of denim, and they could easily mix with the visitors.

Besides taking field trips, county officials have spoken to the PAD classes about their particular office and functions. The classes have heard William O. Weissich, district attorney; Donald Jensen, county administrator; Donald Duerr, city manager of Sausalito; and Dr. George Feliz, former member of the County Board of Freeholders.

The PAD classes have been concentrating on local government. This work has led into their experience of actually seeing how it works. After visiting the County Courthouse the classes will have a discussion and quiz testing them on what they have seen.

Juniors Take Test May 2

Members of the Junior Class of San Rafael high school will meet in the school cafeteria for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test May 2 from 8:30 to 12 a.m.

This nation-wide search for students who demonstrate an exceptional ability to benefit from a college education has been going on for the past four years. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests are helping colleges and universities to find the students who deserve scholarships.

The emphasis of the test is on broad intellectual skills, on understanding of and ability to use what has been learned rather than sheer knowledge of facts. Scores are provided on five subtests: English usage, math usage, social studies reading, natural science reading and word usage.

All students who take the test will receive their individual scores on each subtest and a total score. They will also receive information explaining their scores.

Asire from the possibility of receiving a scholarship the test gives students an opportunity to know their chances of admission to colleges and their strengths and weaknesses scholastically.

HIGH LIFE

—A weekly page of news from Marin's high schools, written and edited by students

New Editor, Staff Of Tam Year Book 'Pai' Chosen

David Cavnagaro, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cavnagaro of Mill Valley, has been named editor of the 1960 Pai, Tam High's yearbook.

Dave, who was selected chiefly on the basis of his ability to organize, has been interested in creative writing since his freshman year.

Mrs. Kathryn Martin, adviser, Ciel Coberly, '59 editor, and the rest of the 1959 staff also named Colette Bruvry as copy editor, Bill Emerson as business manager, Drucilla Brown as office manager and Pam Miller as publicity manager.

The sports editor and other staff members will be named soon.

To be accepted as a member of the Pai staff, a junior must submit a paper stating what position he would like to fill and why he feels that he is qualified to hold it.

Plan Student Bank At Drake High

A new addition to Drake's student body organization, a student bank, is in the first stage of planning.

At the present time all of the student body bookkeeping is handled by the Tamalpais High School District office in Larkspur. Under the new plan all of the bookkeeping will be done in a special school banking course to be taught by Herman Graves, typing and bookkeeping instructor. This course will be open to all students who have been successful in first year bookkeeping.

Jr. Girls Apply For Graduation March

In keeping with Tamalpais High School tradition, about junior girls are now applying for the graduation march. 30

Marin Athletes Set Three Records In North Bay Relays

Marin's high school athletes set three new North Bay League records and tied for a fourth in yesterday's relay meet at Vallejo.

The Vallejo squad won the varsity relays with 34 points, followed by San Rafael and Tamalpais with 18 each, Drake and Napa with 16 1/2 each, Montgomery with 8 and Santa Rosa with 6.

Tam won the B division with 28 points. Drake topped the C division with 23.

San Rafael's Ron Snidow, Northern California's top high school discus and shot heaver, figured in two new relay records set by the Bulldogs.

Snidow put the shot 47 feet 11 inches in leading his team to a record of 169 feet. Others on the team were Key, Francisco and Erdman.

Ron again led the team in setting the first record for the new, smaller-sized discus adopted by California high schools this year. Snidow's toss was 166 feet 9 inches, as the team set a new record of 546 feet 6 1/2 inches. Other platter hurlers were Fletcher, Francisco and Marshall.

Drake High's medley relay team turned in a record time of 11:13.8, with Candray running the 440, Miller the 880, Doug Ketron the 1320 and Hagen Bruckner the mile.

Tam tied with Montgomery in setting a high jump record of 22 feet 8 inches. Tam's jumpers were Edwards, Cook, Douglas and Hector.

Tam won the 280-yard high hurdles in 39.3 seconds. Chiswell, Cook, Edwards and Hector were the team members.

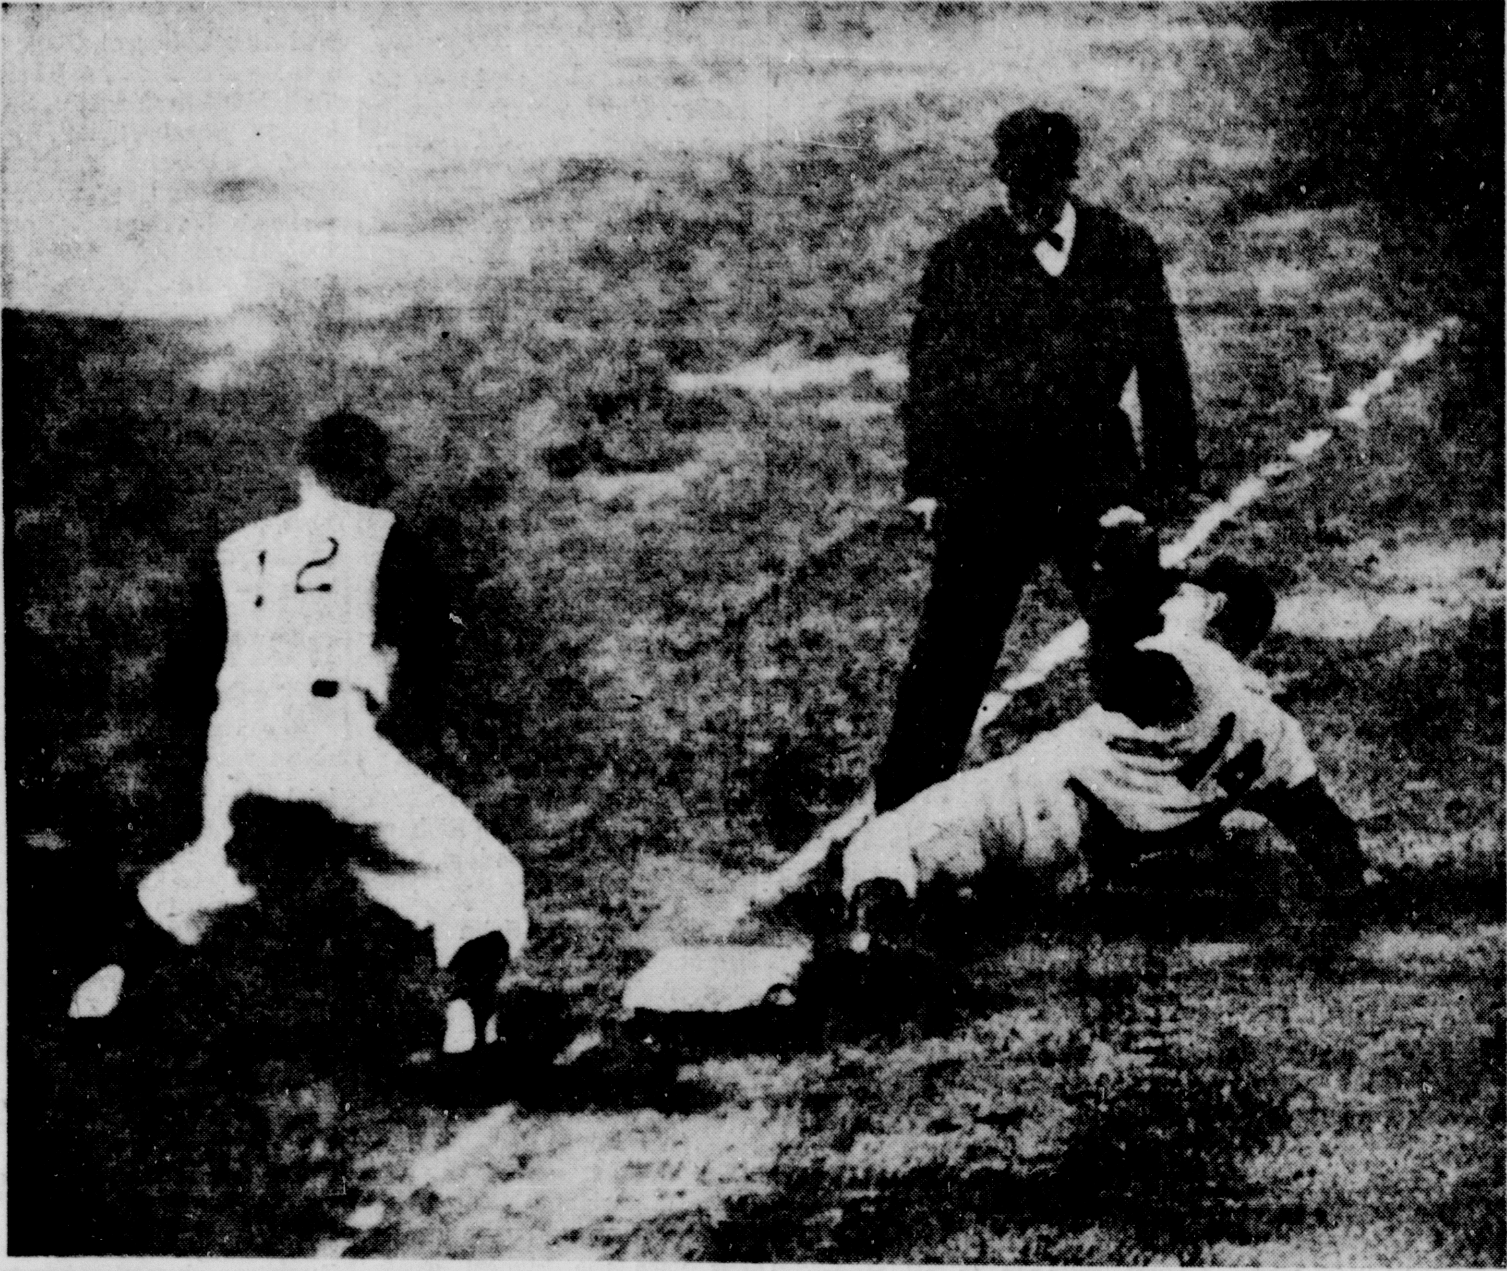

Tam and Drake tied for first at 37 feet in the pole vault.

In the 480-yard low hurdles, the Vallejo team edged Tam by 1 of a second at 56.7 to take first. Vallejo also won the mile, two-mile and broad jump and set a new record of 43.4 seconds in winning the 440-yard.

Tam won high hurdles, low hurdles, broad jump, high jump and 440 in capturing first place in the B division. Other B scores were Vallejo 23 1/2, Drake 16 1/2, Montgomery and Santa Rosa 14 each, San Rafael 10 and Napa 2.

Drake won the C 1980 relay, shot put and 440, while Tam took the C pole vault. Behind Drake in the C meet were Montgomery, with 20, San Rafael 12, Vallejo 9 and Tam 8.

Redwood did not participate in the meet. Track coach Bob Troppman said he received notice at 10 a.m. that the meet, which was rained out Saturday, would be held yesterday afternoon. As his squad figured to be contenders only in the C division, Troppman said he did not think it worthwhile disrupting classes for a Monday afternoon trip to Vallejo.

TRIPLE FOR HODGES — Gil Hodges, Los Angeles Dodgers first baseman, slides safely into third base on a fourth inning triple in last night's game at Forbes Field with Pittsburgh Pirates. Dodgers Beat Pittsburgh, 9-3, To Take League's First Place

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Virtually no one but the other players in the National League considered the Los Angeles Dodgers a threat for the pennant. And even the players would shrug when they explained that the Dodgers "were too good to be seventh last year."

So who's in first? The Dodgers.

They made it a one-game lead last night, whipping Pittsburgh 9-3 with a five-run first inning. That supplied all the cushion Don Drysdale needed to beat the Pirates for the first time since 1957.

It was the lanky right-hander's third consecutive victory after losing his first decision and he did it with a six-hitter.

That was the only game played in the majors yesterday. Only two others were scheduled, both in the N.L. and both were postponed by rain.

Manager Fred Haney's planned benching of left fielder Wes Covington and shortstop Johnny Logan was shelved when his defending champion Milwaukee Braves had to call off their game with the Chicago Cubs. The San Francisco Giants, in third place but only a game shy of the Dodgers along with the second place Braves, also were idled by rain, at Philadelphia.

The Dodgers, with Gil Hodges the only holdover from the old guard in the line-up, chased winless George Witt, the sophomore who figured predominantly in Pittsburgh's pennant plans, before he retired a man. That left the young right-hander with an 0-3 record and put the Pirates seventh, four games off the pace.

Witt, again troubled by a painful elbow this spring, walked the first two men he faced, then left after Wally Moon beat out an infield hit and Don Demeter lined a two-run single. Don Zimmer also singled home a pair and Drysdale singled home another before reliever Ron Blackburn retired the side.

Hodges tripled home a run in the fourth for the Dodgers, who had 11 hits, and they counted another in the fifth on

Rain Changes Rigney's Plan For Pitching

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rain changed Bill Rigney's pitching plans.

The San Francisco Giants manager had lefty Mike McCormick (0-1) slated for action yesterday against Philadelphia, but wet weather caused a postponement.

Rigney wants his top three pitchers, Johnny Antonelli (3-0), Jack Sanford (3-1) and Sam Jones (1-3), ready for the weekend series at Milwaukee.

So Antonelli will go tonight and McCormick tomorrow night in Pittsburgh. Stu Miller (1-0) probably will start the Thursday game.

AMERICAN LEAGUE Yankees Below .500 As They Face West

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Not since 1952 have the New York Yankees been a sub .500 ball club going into their first meeting with the west in an American League pennant race. But that's the way the defending world champions stand as they open a 10-game tour at Chicago tonight.

After numerous switches in the outfield and first base, plus batting order shakeups, Norman admits "nothing works. It looks like we are snake-bit."

Pacific Coast NBA Division Considered

NEW YORK (UPI)—Plans for a "Pacific Coast Division" that would include a Bing Crosby-backed team in Los Angeles have been submitted to the professional National Basketball Assn.

Representatives of the Crosby group met here yesterday with NBA president Maurice Podoloff to make their presentation. Plans call for the establishment of teams in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Seattle and possibly Denver.

Len Corbosiero, general manager of the proposed Los Angeles Jets, said the group has talked to Boston Celtics star

Mill Valley Li'l League Season Opens Saturday

The Mill Valley Little League season will unfold Saturday, with a parade and four games. A parade will open the day's festivities at 9:30 a.m. It will finish at Boyle Park, new home of the Mill Valley Little League, with ceremonies taking place. After the ceremonies the two leagues will open.

This year the National League added a new team, called the Giants, making a five-team league.

Opening the schedule for the National League will be the Merchants against the Giants at 11 a.m., while the Lions will tangle with the Realtors at 1:30 p.m. This Saturday the Yankees drew a bye.

In American League action, the Braves meet the Eaglets at 1 p.m., while the Indians and Tigers will play the nightcap at 3 p.m.

Here are the rosters of the nine Mill Valley major league rosters:

Bantamweight Title Defense To Open L. A. Sports Arena

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—World bantamweight champion Alphonse Halimi of France and Jose Becerra of Mexico were set today to open the five million-dollar sports arena here in a July 8 title bout.

Becerra, 22, No. 1 ranked contender in the April 1 National Boxing Assn. ratings, kayoed the shaky veteran Billy Peacock in the first round of a bout at Tijuana, Mexico, last Monday.

PREP RUNNERS SET FOR NBL MEET

These runners from Tamalpais and Drake high schools, pictured at finish of 220-yard dash in the recent Marin County track meet, will join athletes from other schools in a North Bay League qualifying meet this Saturday at San Rafael High. Other schools scheduled to compete are San Rafael, Redwood, Vallejo, Novato and Tomales. Top four athletes in each event will qualify for the NBL finals at Santa Rosa May 8. Pictured at far left (above) is Tam's Tim Farrell who won the 220-yard dash. Placing second, third and fourth, respectively, are (next to Farrell, from left to right), Drake's Ron Candray, Herb Meadowcroft and Hale Prather. (Independent-Journal photo)

Rodgers Just Nervous, Needs Rest; Ed Bressoud May Win Regular Job

There is no mistaking Bill Rigney's disappointment in the hitting and fielding so far of Andre Rodgers, the Tiger of the Pacific Coast League who was supposed to be the S.F. Giants' stalwart shortstop for 1959.

Rigney's ideas of Rodgers, while critical, are not exactly fatal to the kid's chances of coming back and slamming himself into the first line trenches again.

"I'm giving Andre a rest to settle down," Rigney told me just before he sneaked out of the Coliseum last week after halting the Dodger's win streak.

"I think perhaps he has tired himself in spring efforts and is a bit nervous. Bressoud might be just what we need. For one thing he will be getting into the spot we intended to play him when we purchased him."

Bressoud's promotion to shortstop is highly pleasing to scout Dutch Reuther, who originally signed his for the club.

I asked Reuther if he thought Rodgers would make it at shortstop and Dutch, in his silent, almost inaudible voice screamed:

"THE GIANTS have had the best shortstop on the bench for over a year. Why couldn't Bressoud make it? He had a bad break last spring when his wife died suddenly and the kid never quite got over the shock until toward the end of the year."

"Rodgers, in my book, will one day be a great shortstop but he is nervous yet and not quite experienced enough. Bressoud, I'm sure, will never get out of the regular lineup. Give him four or five weeks and he'll be the real McCoy."

THE ABOUT face of the Dodgers this season has started tongues wagging. Some of the boys are asking what was wrong with the club in 1958, but if you need any urging for an answer just check the lineup for 1959 rookies. Maybe some of the boys who are now clobbering the baseball will recall the strong points, in the spring last year, of Daryl Spencer.

Big D had a whale of a spring season and then climbed back into his shell. The same could happen to the Demeters, Fairlys, Larkers and other youngsters now playing so famously for L.A.

"On our showing against the Dodgers," Rigney declared, "I'm sure of one thing . . . the club is ready. We could easily have won all three games, even in spite of the great exhibition of Don Drysdale."

Rigney claims Toothpick Jones is a flinger who will give S.F. fans the jitters.

Champ 10-1 Favorite Over London Friday

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Call it a "tuneup," "warm-up," "slaughter," or what you will, when heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson and Britain's burly Brian London step into the ring at Indianapolis Friday night it will be for the world title.

If the lantern-jawed Briton, a 10-1 underdog, gets lucky and beats Patterson, he will be the new champion. Into the discard will go the million-dollar-plus Patterson-Ingemar Johansson title scrap set for June 25 at New York's Yankee Stadium.

Major upsets have happened before in heavyweight title fights. Jim Braddock was a lowly regarded 10-1 shot when he outboxed Max Baer for the title 24 years ago, and old Jersey Joe Walcott was held at 6-1 in 1951 when he flattened Ezzard Charles in the seventh round.

London was lucky enough in just getting the pay day. Henry Cooper whipped him in a bloody fight in London last Jan. 12 for the British and British Empire titles and was all set to get the crack at Patterson. Cooper's manager, Jim Wicks, doubled his price from $70,000 to $140,000 and Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, ruled him out.

So D'Amato hand-picked London who was more than happy to get a purse of $60,000 plus the shot at the crown. Patterson may gross close to $200,000.

NBC still will broadcast and telecast 7 p.m., PDT, with the Indianapolis area blacked out. Patterson will be making his fourth defense of the crown he won by stiffening old Archie Moore in the fifth round at Chicago, Nov. 30, 1956. In order his victims, by knockouts, were Hurricane Jackson, 10, July 29, 1957; Pete Rademacher, 6, Aug. 22, 1957, and Roy Harris, 12, Aug. 18, 1958. Rademacher and Harris each floored the champ before being finished off.

In four title fights, including Moore, Floyd, a 6-foot, 185-pounder has scored four knockouts. He has racked up kayos in 15 of his last 16 fights and has a winning streak of 21. His record is 34-1, including 25 kayos.

London, a 6-foot, 209-pounder, insists he has a good chance to surprise everyone.

"If Rademacher and Harris can knock Patterson down, I can knock him out," says Brian.

A pro four years, the husky Briton has a 22-4 record including 19 kayos.

Jumper Undergoes Surgery On Foot

BOSTON (AP)—Surgeons say that if things go as expected John Thomas, world record high jumper, may be able to resume training—and possibly competition—late this spring. Thomas, Boston University freshman, underwent a skin graft operation yesterday in which almost eight square inches of skin was taken from his thigh and stitched close to an unhealed wound on his left foot.

Independent-Journal, Tuesday, April 28, 1959 11

Thomas was injured March 24 when his foot was caught in the door of an elevator.

The pool will be open on Sunday, from 1 to 5 p.m.

Bolinas Harbor Plans Hinge On Federal Aid

Development of a long-planned small boat harbor and refuge at Bolinas hinges on federal aid for construction and maintenance of a breakwater at the harbor entrance.

In a meeting last week in Bolinas, commissioners of the Bolinas Harbor District agreed that such federal aid may depend to a large extent on a feasibility study to determine the size, facilities, costs and economic possibilities of such a harbor.

outstanding bills, and to give Harbuck time to investigate the books of KFM Construction Co., which Kupka heads.

is now being conducted by the state Lands Commission, District Chairman Gene W. McDaniel of Bolinas said yesterday. He indicated work should be completed within 30 days.

"The commissioners are considering acquiring the services of John A. Blum and Associates of San Francisco to conduct the feasibility study," McDaniel said. Final decision on this will be made after the state boundary survey is received.

The Bolinas project has already had extensive study by the Army Corps of Engineers. Former Rep. Hubert B. Scudder was successful in obtaining a public works appropriation for a hydrographic survey of the entrance channel.

McDaniel said preliminary plans for the inner harbor have been compiled by Associated Dredging Co. of Sausalito.

However, said McDaniel, "All studies show that dredging the entrance channel without at the same time providing a jetty system would entail prohibitive maintenance costs."

The three-year-old Bolinas Harbor District is composed of all area within the Bolinas and Stinson Beach School Districts. It is operating this year on a 13-cent tax rate. Commissioners, besides McDaniel, are Jack B. Lowe and Jack Pepper of Bolinas, Louis De Ghelder and Frederick Thompson of Stinson Beach.

Four Receive Highest Awards Given By Girl Scout Council

Thanks Badges, highest adults awards given by Marin County Girl Scout Council, were awarded to four active workers in Scouting at the first countywide "Scouts In Action Day" held Saturday from 12:15 to 4 p.m. at the Redwood High School gym in Corte Madera.

Recipients of this honor were Mrs. Robert Langbehn, Round-Up patrol training chairman, Hospital Aides coordinator, troop leader; Walter Carter, former member of Girl Scout Board of Directors and chairman of the Huckleberry Woods established camp committee, presently a leading force in the establishment and development of the new Sierraville camp; Mrs. Lyman Emerson, president of the Marin County Girl Scout Council, serving her second term of office, and Mrs. Barrett Hinde, first vice president of the Council and chairman of the Selections Committee.

Thanks Badges are awarded only to those active in Scouting who have shown a sustained and dedicated interest in the Girl Scout program.

CERTIFICATES Certificates of Appreciation may go to individuals or to groups, whether they are members or non-members of Girl Scouting. These certificates were awarded to the following: Mrs. Clarence Leisure, training chairman and member of the Board of Directors; Mrs. George Daum, neighborhood chairman; Mrs. Thomas Mellon, member-at-large on Board of Directors and active with public relations; Mrs. J. S. Detweiler, member of Board of Directors and active with conservation projects; Mrs. George Jennings, troop consultant and formerly District Coordinator; Mrs. John A. Callahan, volunteer trainer; the Bank of America, represented by Charles Stuart, assistant for a number of years with camp folders; St. John's Episcopal Church, represented by the Rev. Harold Hallett, for 22 years of generosity in the use of church buildings for Girl Scout activities; San Rafael General Hospital, for use of hospital facilities in training hospital aides.

Mrs. Frank E. Duhme, Jr., chairman for "Scouts in Action Day" and mistress of ceremonies, opened the program with a brief welcome followed by presentation of the colors. Group singing, led by Bunny Brown and Marianne Walsh of Troop 132, followed the flag ceremony and Pledge of Allegiance. Prize winners for the county-wide art contest in connection with Scouts in Action Day were announced. Prize winning painting, drawings and photographs will be taken to the Girl Scout Round-Up which will be held in Colorado during July of this year. Winners were as follows: Kay Kin-kade, Troop 175, San Anselmo; Diane Barnard, 104, Terra Linda; Toni Johnston, 245, The Cedars; Diane Rowen, 177, Marinwood; Loreen Laverty, 238, San Anselmo and Denise Garety, 40, San Rafael.

JULIET LOW A background sketch on Juliet Low and the early beginning of Girl Scouting in the United States with an explanation of the meaning of the World Friendship Fund was given by World Friendship Chairman, Mrs. Robert O'Connell. This was followed by a World Friendship March which included representatives from all Scout and Brownie troops. "Scouts' Own" with a theme of "Americana" concluded the program. "Scouts' Own" is held by Girl Scouts to be a time for quiet and expression of reverence and serious thoughts based on ideals of Girl Scouting. Senior Scouts participating in this part of the program were Sharon Kuwatani, Sandy Pastori, Miriam and Marie Grbac of Troop 203; Norma Hargreaves, 155; Carol Newman, Mary Beth Chouinard, 171; Jean Lang, co-chairman, Elizabeth Diest, Karen Kollgaard, April Edsberg, 132; Sue Henika, Karen Little, Susan Ross and Chairman Linda Oetlinghaus, 161. The theme, "Americana," was planned and executed by this committee of the Senior Planning Board. Miss Myrna Reed is advisor for the group.

IOOF Whist Party

The public is invited to a whist party to be given by Mr. Tamalpais Lodge 399, IOOF, tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. in the Odd Fellows Temple, Mill Valley. Awards will be given and refreshments served.

Serving on the committee are C. L. Spinney, H. E. Owen, H. A. Maxey, C. G. Norris and J. O. Anderson.

ON EDUCATION

Republican Women Hear John Buresh

John Buresh, San Rafael attorney and city attorney for San Anselmo, was the guest speaker at the April meeting of the Republican Women of Marin, Federated, at the American Legion Log Cabin recently. His subject was, "American Education at the Crossroads."

Speaking as an "ordinary citizen" Buresh approached the subject from a very human and common-sense point of view, recalling how the education of children in the early days was the sole responsibility of the parents. As time went on tutors were employed and eventually the public school system was born. Buresh described the advent of the new philosophy in education fostering the Dewey system, which has influenced many dedicated teachers and administrators. He referred to the book, "Why Johnny Can't Read" and its impact on all thinking people. "We are at the crossroads because high schools are not preparing pupils for college and grade schools are not emphasizing good study habits and are lacking in discipline." We are gearing our education to what children like rather than what is good for them. Buresh stated it is dangerous for educators to want to mold everyone into one pattern as it will produce a weakened generation.

Dr. Virgil Hollis, County Superintendent of Schools, Howard Chadd, member, county board of trustees, and W. P. (Doc) Duhamel, county veterans' service officer, were guests of honor, all of whom were invited to participate in the open discussion.

Other guests of honor were Mrs. W. P. Duhamel and Mrs. Harlan B. Hennessy, whose husband is a candidate for the Fairfax board along with Victor Watson, past commander of the American Legion who was invited but was unable to attend with regrets.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Oscar Samet and the pledge to the flag led by Dr. Hollis. A brief business meeting was followed by a strong appeal in behalf of Mrs. H. B. Sturgeon, chairman, for a concerted effort to support the club's rummage sale which will be held the first week of June.

An Hawaiian Kaukau was announced by Mrs. Henry Sherry, hospitality chairman, as the theme for the May 21 and final meeting of this season. Reservations, which will close May 16, may be made now with Mrs. Matt Graham, ticket chairman.

WILLIAM J. DUFFYS LEAVING FOR HONEYMOON IN EUROPE

The newly married Mr. and Mrs. William J. Duffy are sailing on Wednesday from New York aboard the "Queen Elizabeth" for a four months' tour of Europe. They are buying a Simca for their travels. On May 7, in Paris, they will meet the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. E. A. Peters of San Rafael, her husband and daughter, Carol. The Peters' have been touring Europe for almost a year. They sail for New York from Bremerhaven on May 27 and will tour the United States before returning home.

The Duffys were married in Carson City, Nev. with Dr. John Leslie Harvey, officiating. The bride, the former Mrs. George Thornton of Eel Cerrito, is a graduate of Mills College. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Downer, Contra Costa pioneers, and she has a daughter, Mrs. Robert Daiss of Los Altos. Her brother is Edward M. Downer Jr. of El Cerrito. She and her husband have known each other since childhood. Death took their first mates.

The bridegroom, a graduate of the University of California at Davis, has extensive ranching interests in Sutter County and he is active in agricultural research. He has been living in Woodland. He is the son of Marin pioneers, the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Duffy of San Quentin. He has two daughters, Mrs. Russell Traynham of Woodland and Mrs. Bryna Fairlee of Fort Bragg and he is the brother of Mrs. Ethel Turner of Mexico City, Mrs. Ernest Zubler of San Quentin, Raymond P. Duffy, Mrs. George Zang and Mrs. Peters of San Rafael and Clinton T. Duffy of Kentfield.

Official Visit Set For PM Auxiliary

Delphia McVey, department president of Ladies Auxiliary of Patriarchs Militant, IOOF, will make her annual visit to San Rafael Ladies Auxiliary No. 39 at the IOOF Temple in San Rafael on Friday night. All members will wear their dress uniforms.

The 8 o'clock business session will follow a 6:30 p.m. pot luck supper. Mrs. Kenneth Irwin, president of the San Rafael Auxiliary, will preside at the meeting. Mrs. Herbert Hickman, vice president, chairman for the evening, will be assisted by Mesdames John Robertson, James Williams and Irwin.

Temple Rodef Sholom Makes Plans For Party, Fashion Show

The women's Auxiliary of Temple Rodef Sholom is busily engaged in completing plans for the gala Theater Party and Fashion Show which will be given Wednesday, May 6, at the Sequoia Theater in Mill Valley.

Mrs. Mervyn Cohn, chairman for the affair, is duplicating last year's successful format. The afternoon of fun will include a Fashion Show revealing the newest in spring styles and a preview showing of a movie.

Assisting Mrs. Cohn are Mesdames Leo Strauss and David Cohn, co-chairmen for the fashion show, which will feature styles selected by a San Francisco store. Also included on Mrs. Cohn's committee are Mesdames Abe Blumenfeld, refreshments; Joseph Arons, decorations; Wilfred Cohen, gifts; Arnold Colton, ushers, and Evan Goldenberg, publicity.

The following women compose the working committee-at-large: Mesdames Philander Beadle, Melvin Bleaton, Sidney Braverman, Herman Cohn, Joseph Cohen, Steve Liggett, Theodore Diller, Edward Goodman, Joseph Guterman, Richard Harris, Samuel Herst, Chester Patnoe, Kurt Rosenthal, David Rosenberg, Bert Rude, Sidney Rudy, Aaron Schwartz, Aaron Shenson and Herbert Stark.

Modeling in the fashion show are Mesdames Michael Ainbinder, Howard Cohn, Albert Goldberg, Alvin Harris, Maurice J. Koch, John Levy, Bertram Portugeis, Kurt Rosenthal and Robert Sokolov. Mrs. Matthew Koppel, daughter of the president of the group, Mrs. Joseph Guterman, will come up from Millbrae to participate in the fund raising activity.

Miss Jill Lerner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Lerner, will be modeling the latest in teen age fashions. Michelle Gravitch, 4 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Gravitch, and Joan Schwartz, 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Schwartz, will also perform in the fashion parade.

The Women's Auxiliary acts as a sisterhood to the young Jewish congregation and just completed its second year of service. One of its prime functions is to raise funds for Temple needs.

Tickets for the Theater Party and Fashion Show are available. The Sequoia Theater will open its doors at 12 noon with the afternoon's activities getting under way at 1 o'clock. Women interested in attending the affair are asked to contact Mrs. Mervyn Cohn.

SAN RAFAEL OES PLANS SPRING PARTY

For many years members of San Rafael Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, have entertained their friends at a festive Spring party and this year's event is scheduled for Wednesday, May 13.

Masonic Hall is to be decorated for the festive affair and dessert will be served at 1 p.m., followed by an afternoon of cards. Chairman of the party is Mrs. Horace Shadle and assisting here are the Mesdames Howard Hoenes, Roy Balke, Walter Shawyer, W. B. Shawler and Peter Bisaro.

Because of the large crowd expected to attend, Mrs. Shadle urges those desiring reservations to make them as soon as possible by calling her or Mrs. Shawler. In the Novato area, reservations will be taken by Worthy Matron Bernice McGee.

Richard Browns Feted At Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown of Santa Venetia, who had featured roles in the Ross Valley Players production of "The Matchmaker" were honored at two parties last weekend, with all the guests going on to the play to watch their dramatic efforts.

Friday they were given a before-theater dinner at Sabela's with guests including the Mesdames Dolly and Norma Raffo of San Rafael and the Messrs. Victor Marcessli and Fred Dirken of San Francisco.

Saturday they were guests at an after-theater party given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bohanna and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Stoerker. Others to attend this gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henricks of San Rafael, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Setlo, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Halprin and Miss Marilyn Stone, all of Alameda, and Miss Roberta Clarke and Robert Emerson, both of Burlingame.

IN SAUSALITO

Sale Is To Feature A 'Coffee Corner'

Mrs. Merrell Sisson, chairman, is announcing an added feature to the "Flower Show for Fun and Plant Sale for Funds" event of the Sausalito Woman's Club on Thursday: a "Help Yourself to Coffee Corner."

Coffee will be dispensed throughout the afternoon and evening so those attending the affair might sip that ever popular beverage while selecting the various types of plants of their choice for their gardens.

Mrs. Frank Rossman has been appointed by Mrs. Sisson to take charge of the "Corner" and she has rounded up a group of ladies who will be on hand to keep the coffee urns filled and to assist all coffee drinkers.

Those assisting Mrs. Rossman with hostess duties are Mesdames Harold Wilkinson, Leo C. Beers, D. W. Whitaker, John Koenig, W. D. Funk, James G. Sweet, Frederic W. Tower, Walter Flegel and Misses Collette Shillig and Georgia Robbins.

Mrs. Sisson and Mrs. John Churchill, co-chairman, are checking last minute details in preparation for the event. Very reasonable prices are being set for the plants, driftwood pieces and rocks that will be available at the Plant Sale.

Mrs. Emmet Rixford's committee of flower arrangers are carrying out the last minute details for the Flower Show.

There will be no charge to those attending the event either for admission to the Show or for coffee.

PREPARING for the rummage sale to be given by the Women's Division of the Marin County Real Estate board tomorrow at the Corte Madera Recreation Center are four members of the committee: (left to right) Miki Powell, Vera Rivers, Joan Atwater and Blanche Redmond. Proceeds of the sale, which will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., will go to the Glenn D. Williams educational fund.

Parties To Precede St. Stephen's Tour

Several parties are being planned to precede "Seven Decades of Homes in Belvedere," the St. Stephen's Guild house tour to be held Thursday from 1 to 4 p.m.

An annual affair, this year the tour will trace the transition in Belvedere from the home of the 1890s to the most modern home on the Lagoon. Earliest home to be shown is that of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Pedley. Representing subsequent decades will be the home of the Walter Simis, John P. Omiz-zolos, Robert Lamorees, Hiram Johnson III, the Lou Hymans and the Alfred Gempyles. Transportation will be furnished from the village green and tea will be served at the San Francisco Yacht Club.

Among the luncheon scheduled is one which Mrs. Maurice Glazer is giving for Mesdames David Glazer, Arthur Pivers, Wesley Costello, T. Carl Dybdal, A. Cameron Ball, L. R. DeLuchi, Abe Levine, John Heil and Cecil Miller.

As long as it was the regular meeting day of her alumnae group of Alpha Omicron Pi, Mrs. Charles Berry invited them for lunch and to the tour instead of the meeting. From Oakland will come Mesdames Arthur Flegel, Grant J. Hunt, Dudley J. Richardson; from Orinda Mrs. Edward Kruse; from El Cerrito, Eugene Weisend; from Berkeley, Mrs. Robert Murray; from San Francisco, Mesdames John Phelan and Ralph Myers; from Corte Madera, Mrs. W. C. Anderson; from Palo Alto, Mrs. Jack Giosso and from Belvedere Mrs. Robert Temby.

Mrs. Robert Bastian has invited a few out of town guests including her mother, Mrs. Vaughn Wright, and her sister, Miss Virginia Wright of San Francisco and Mrs. William Black of Sonoma, Mrs. Jerome Kerthle of Palo Alto, and Mrs. Arthur Chute of Oakland.

The largest party will be given at the home of Mrs. Kent Beardsley in Little Reed Heights, with Mrs. Donald Mitchell as co-hostess. Invited are Mesdames James Campbell, Dean Larson, John Hoffmire, Stanley Peterson, Robin Hobart, James Zeigler, William Clifford, John Jansheski, David Kamp, William Myers, Bruce McAllister, Alan Cunday, John Remak, Newton Wise, Erik Rettig, Lowell Airolo.

THE TRADITIONAL copa de champagne, a toast in honor of the enduring friendship between the peoples of the Americas was offered on Pan American Day at a recent reception honoring representatives of the member nations at the University Club, San

New Zonta President Names Committees

Committee chairmen were named by Mrs. Courtland Benites, the new president of the Zonta Club of Marin County at the installation of officers meeting at which she received the gavel from outgoing president, Miss Dorothy Erthle. The evening meeting was held at the San Rafael home of Mrs. Americo Oberto with Mrs. Beth Burchard assisting as co-hostess.

Chairmen for 1959-1960 are Mesdames John Cary Gilman, attendance; Oliver R. Hartzell, by-laws; William Rattray, civil defense; Miss Katherine Tasker, finance; Miss Erthle, hospitality; Miss Dorothy Campbell, historian; Mesdames Margaret Hedden, inter-city; Melville Oppenheimer, international relations; John Pitcher, membership; Ethel Cobb-Souza, parliamentarian; W. D. Nichol, public affairs; Richard E. Mittelstaedt, publicity; Joseph Q. Riznik, program; Leonard E. Tew, roster; Miss Mary Fiedler, service; and Miss Virginia Shattuck, telephone.

Other officers installed by Miss Erthle were Mesdames Riznik, vice president; J. V. Porter, recording secretary; Harry M. Williams, corresponding secretary; Ray Eubanks, treasurer and Mesdames Burchard, Richard Keating and Oberto, board members.

The charter dinner of Zonta Club of Reno, Nevada, which was sponsored by the Marin Club and organized by Mrs. Cobb-Souza, was attended by Miss Erthle and Mesdames Benites, Cobb-Souza and Hedden. Several months or work were given and many trip to Reno made by Mrs. Cobb-Souza in securing the 22 charter members. For this she was honored by Mayor Len Harris of Reno and was presented with a key to the city, and a large bouquet of flowers at the banquet. With this new club, Area 1 of District IX, which comprises the bay area, now has 11 clubs.

At the recent luncheon meeting at West End Villa, Mrs. Benites introduced the speaker, Kimiko Sogabe, an American Field Service student from Japan, and a senior at Katherine Branson School in Ross, who is staying with the John Cary Gilman family in Ross. In June Miss Sogabe will make a cross country trip of the United States before flying back to Japan. Kimiko lives in Takamatsu, a city of 210,000 population. Her father is an M.D., and she has one sister and two brothers. Her sister is a member of the Olympic Gymnastic team and teaches gymnastics at Tokyo University.

The speaker said that the main industries of Japan are farming and fishing. All work is done with hand tools, and individual cultivated areas are small. Pupils attend schools from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., including Saturday. Ten subjects are required, and schedules are set up on a weekly basis. There is not much social life at the high school age, young people study after dinner, and then go to bed.

American Field Service is five years old in Japan. In 1958, 61 students left Japan for other countries, and the United States has 24 students who went to Japan.

Other guests at the luncheon were Miss Jan Gilman and Miss Angela Soldavini, San Rafael city treasurer and tax collector.

On May 21, the Zontians will tour the Nike site north of San Rafael, then have dinner at the installation.

FOCUS SHOW TO HONOR PIXIE PARENTS

Take a memo, Miss Jones! Address it to The Modern Mother.

If you are this modern mother, then Fashion Focus will be sending you its newsy memorandum next Tuesday at Riskey's popular lunch eon.

It will be Mayfair's fashionable "Memos to a Modern Mother" who, regardless of age, feels young, thinks young, and offers fresh ideas to her community.

Refreshing symbol of the modern mother who combines homemaking with community service is Tuesday's honored group, the Pixie Parents of the Marin Art and Garden Center. Pixie Place, their delightful playground for pre-school children is currently being remodeled and expanded with completion date set for August.

On Tuesday, whether you can transcribe or read speed-writing, you can understand the feminine sign language of a Mayfair fashion. Since its opening a few years ago, the Mayfair Shop of San Rafael has added a new dimension and mood to the Marin fashion scene with the usual and unusual in vacation favorites, patio brighteners, pool looks and party gowns.

The usual memo of a modern mother "have hair, what to do?" will be answered by Tone's House of Beauty in Corte Madera with hair styles for the attractive models that will bound to vacation, lounge on the patio, or linger at a party.

The luncheon series is open to the public with luncheon on the outdoor lanai and around the pool at 12:30 o'clock and the fashions at 1 p.m. For reservations, call Riskey's Rancho Rafael.

Valley Sewing Club

Mrs. Albert Hughes will be luncheon hostess to members of the Valley Sewing Club tomorrow at her home, 54 Mt. View avenue, Mill Valley.

Mrs. Walter Meyer, president, will conduct a business meeting at 2 p.m. after the luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

St. Raphael's Court Holds Dinner Dance

One of the pleasant social events of the month was the annual dinner dance of Court St. Raphael No. 1406, Catholic Daughters of America, in St. Raphael's Hall, Saturday night. Mrs. James Shanahan, general chairman, was assisted by Mesdames Irving Hobbs and Paul Nederman Jr.

Annual communion breakfast of the court will be held on Sunday at the 8 o'clock Mass. Mrs. William Slatter, grand regent, announces. Afterward the members will have breakfast at Riskey's Rancho Rafael.

At the court's business meeting on Monday, May 11, officers will be elected following the report by the nominating committee, which is composed of Mesdames Margaret Schwager, Ray Banahan, James Shanahan and Harold Winter.

At the recent meeting several reports were given. Mrs. John Enos reported on education. Mrs. Banahan on social welfare. Mrs. John Webb on foreign mission and Mrs. Merton Preston on National Council of Catholic Women.

Marin Clubs Presented Awards At Women's Clubs Convention

Golden Gate District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, meeting in convention April 20 to 22 at the Sir Francis Drake Hotel in San Francisco, adopted four resolutions as presented by Mrs. Sylvester McAtee of Sausalito, resolutions chairman:

1. Protest transfer of Sutor Library, a branch of the State Library, to the University of California, and urging that appropriation for its proper care be restored to the budget.

2. Civil Defense. Requesting Governor Edmund G. Brown to name a women's coordinator of civil defense.

3. Urging continuation by Congress of the Un-American Committee.

4. Urging the federal government to see that U. S. Geodetic Survey Markers throughout California be given greater protection against vandals.

On recommendation of Mrs. Hugh M. Casey, president of Landmarks Council of California, the convention endorsed State Legislation to restore the historic name, El Camino Real from the Kings Highway, and which would provide markers showing the path of Padre Junipero Serra between his missions stretching from the Mexican border to the Oregon border.

Publicity and press awards were presented by the district chairman, Mrs. Cecil L. Cooley, to the Outdoor Art Club of Mill Valley; Sausalito Women's Club and the San Rafael Improvement Club.

All around community affairs award was presented to the Outdoor Art Club, and the San Rafael Improvement Club was responsible for the ribbon award for second place in the Hallmark contest to Richard Reynolds, San Rafael High School senior for his abstract "Absence of Nature."

The highlight of the entertainment at the family dinner was the entertainment presented by members of the Sausalito Women's Club. Mrs. Jean Mackenzie's solo "Oceanic Roll" accompanied by Mrs. McAtee, drama chairman, and "Noah's Ark" taken from "And It Came To Pass" recently presented at the Sausalito Women's Club. Mrs. John Ward was Unicorn and the animals were Mesdames Jacques Neville, John Sweeney, Ernest Bowman, Raymond Gergus, Harold Griffith, Wint F. Saint, H. C. McVean and Richard Grambow.

Mrs. Emmeline Vandyke, member of the Outdoor Art Club presented an Indian Dance in authentic costume.

Mrs. P. A. Stang, of Mill Valley, scholarship chairman, reported that Marin County had contributed $328.75 in scholarships—Mrs. Stang stated Clubs are encouraged to expand their activities and establish scholarships—and in promotion of international goodwill through scholarships to foreign students to study in United States.

Mrs. Park Q. Wray, president, presided at the three day convention. More than 200 delegates representing more than 4,000 members in 40 federated clubs in Marin, San Francisco and San Mateo Counties were in attendance.

Mrs. Wray announced the district has set November 8th for the starting date of the tour to Hawaii. Members of the district and their families are invited to join on this fall tour.

Festival Will Precede Talk By Physician

Tomorrow at 8 p.m., the Service Guild of Holy Innocents' Episcopal Church, Corte Madera, will sponsor a lecture by Richard L. Sutherland, M.D., on "The Christian Approach to Psychiatry."

The meeting, to be held in the parish hall, will begin with a Strawberry Festival. Tickets may be purchased from Service Guild members, Messrs. and Mesdames Richard Brown, Oring Gray, Myron Banfield, Jack Boyd, Al Madsen, Everett Sebrill, Bill Barck, Roland Wilson, George Pollard, Edward Tennler, Fred Tegeler and the Rev. and Mrs. Todd Ewald, and will also be sold at the door.

Dr. Sutherland is well known in the Bay Area as a doctor, psychiatrist, and churchman. He has served in the Army, as a surgeon in New Guinea, and as a psychiatrist in Australia. After his lecture, the meeting will be open to questions and discussion.

New Volunteers Of Air Defense Are Announced

Several names have recently been added to the roster of Air Defense Army volunteers, one of the newest services of the Marin Chapter of the American Red Cross, according to Mrs. I. Wayland Bonbright, Jr., Air Defense Army coordinator.

Members of this service travel to the various Nike and radar sites in the county on a regular schedule, serving coffee and visiting with the men who are stationed in isolated areas. Through the efforts of this group, television sets have been acquired for the recreation halls at the sites.

New volunteers are Mesdames Robert Caven, Gordon Dunn, George McWilliams, William Purdy, Wallace Sommers and James Stewart.

Larkspur Bethel Has Initiation

Six members were initiated at a recent meeting of Bethel 246, Larkspur. At the meeting, presided over by honored queen Susan Reed those initiated were Barbara Koons, Diana Lee Baily, Jennifer Shibley, Marilyn Miller and Marjorie Miller.

Senior princess, Ruth Smith announced that her senior princess project, a rummage sale, was a huge success. Sue Reed told members that the spring picnics will be held at Camp Lagunitas on May 15. Those honored in the East were Lynne Scott, past honored queen of Bethel 246, Larkspur; Mrs. Muriel Jockish, guardian, and William Reed, associate guardian, both of Bethel 246; and George Rowse, past worshipful master of Fairfax Lodge 556.

Stump Jumper Party

Twenty squares danced to the calls of Floyd Creiger at the Stump Jumpers' monthly square dance party recently at the IDESI hall. The following clubs were represented: Mill Wheelers, Buzzin' Boots, Tormey Squares, Hill Toppers, Double Diamonds, Novato Squares, Fiddle Footers, Square Devils, Spinning Spurs, Top Hands and Guys and Gals.

Host and hostess for the evening were Walt and Mae Louie, who were assisted by Mike and Mae Lacourse.

Stump Jumpers' next third Saturday party will feature Bud Grass.

THE MARINWOOD HOME and School Club will stage a Mother's Day Carnival on Sunday, May 10 at the Mary E. Silva School in Marinwood. Principal Don Thiel admires

ONE OF THE special attractions of the all-day carnival will be an evening production to be given by Mrs. Glenn Howerton's School of Dance.

THE COINS gathered at the Wishing Well during the carnival will be used to purchase a set of science encyclopedias for the library at the grammar school. Working on the event are, left to right, Mesdames Gladys Black, Jack N. Crowell and Richard Shirley. (Independent-Journal photos)

ON MAY 10

Host Of Attractions Planned For Marinwood Club Carnival

Plans for the Mothers' Day Carnival to be held Sunday, May 10 at the Mary E. Silva School grounds in Marinwood are in full swing under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Shirley.

Breakfast featuring hot-cakes and sausage or ham, will be served from 9 until 12 o'clock with Edwin Lewin acting as master chef.

The gigantic midway which is being constructed on the school grounds by a crew under direction of Daniel Harris will open at noon. Mrs. Robert Pedersen is acting as coordinator for the many booths on the midway.

The kindergarten classes are sponsoring the traditional Fish Pond for the children with Mrs. Paul Kiefer serving as "hook-baiter." The first grades will have a Wheel of Fortune booth with Mrs. Don Ray in charge, offering stuffed animals and novelty games. Children may win bowls of goldfish at the second grade booth, according to the chairman, Mrs. Wilson Stackhouse, and toys and games will be given to the winners at the third graders' Tic Tac Toe and also the Coke Ring Toss which the fourth graders are planning. Mrs. Fred Krambs will be postmistress for the day and dispense surprise packages from distant points at the Post Office which is the fifth grade project.

Mrs. Robert Broome will present homemade cakes to the winners at the sixth graders' Wheel of Fortune booth, and summer straw hats for all the family will be featured as prizes at the seventh graders' dart game to be run by Mrs. Jay Barbeau. Choice Camembert cheeses and bags of groceries will comprise the seventh grade booth with Mrs. Jack Crowell in charge. Mrs. Joseph Christiani and Mrs. Richard Mallet are acting as joint chairmen for the Green Thumb booth at which potted plants and perpetual dried arrangements will be offered. Buel Snyder of the Marinwood Association will man a booth featuring hams and bacon, and the teachers will preside at a Wishing Well and present, through the generosity of Marinwood Hills Company, an orchid to each mother present. The coins garnered at the Wishing Well will be used by the teachers' group to purchase a set of science encyclopedias for placement in the fledgling library at the grammar school.

Mrs. Lloyd Kirchner will transform her young patrons into clowns, Indians, princesses or fairies with the aid of theatrical make-up at her booth.

Jack Carreiro and Ernest Lucas are arranging rides for the children and a trampoline jump, and the 4-H Club is providing horseback rides. Mrs. James Levien is organizing a Sidewalk Cafe where hot-dogs, cokes and orange drinks, ice cream fountain sundaes, popcorn, peanuts, pink candy fluff, sno-cones and coffee will be served at small individual patio tables by the local Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls, with the teen-agers serving as soda jerks.

In addition to all the previously mentioned attractions, at the carnival there will be clowns selling balloons, dancing for the teen-agers all afternoon on the basketball court, a merry-go-round and a concert staged by the Las Gallinas Sanitary District non-marching just-for-fun band. The gigantic Mothers' Day Carnival will wind up the full day with an evening production starting at 7 o'clock presented by Mrs. Glenn Howerton's School of Dance. The program includes five ballets, two hulas and several tap routines, followed by a demonstration of ballroom dancing by the young members of the Cotillion. More than 150 children will take part in the evening program which will be announced by Glenn Howerton Jr. Mrs. Herb Rikles is in charge of all art work, sign painting and booth decoration for the entire carnival.

PRACTICE SESSIONS UNDERWAY FOR ANNUAL BALLET AQUACADE

There has been more than the usual splash in Marin swimming pools this week as practice sessions for the 14th annual Ballet Aquacade have gotten underway in 13 private pools in Kentfield, Ross, and San Rafael.

More than 150 of the 300 young girls who competed in last month tryouts have begun rehearsals of the elaborate swimming routines they must learn for the two Ballet Aquacade performances which will be given at 2:30 p.m. the weekend of June 6 and 7 at the Roger Kent estate in Kentfield.

Private pools for the twice weekly practices have been made available in San Rafael by Dr. and Mrs. J. Leonard Schmitz and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilsey. In Ross, Mrs. Ralston W. Hodgson, who has been director and choreographer of the Ballet Aquacade since its beginning, will make their family pool available, as will her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goodman. In Kentfield, hosts to the skillful young swimmers for the next several weeks will be Dr. and Mrs. Howard E. Burns, Mrs. Jessie M. Kelso, and the Messrs. and Mesdames Richard J. Wertheimer, Frank T. Dettner, Robert W. Hobart, Thomas E. Cuffe, Fred B. Galbreath, T. J. Weiner, and Robert Kent.

Mrs. Thomas E. Gilboy of Kentfield is swim director of the Ballet Aquacade, sponsored by the Ross-Kentfield-Greenbrae Unit of the Junior Theater of Marin to benefit their summer theater workshop and Marin General Hospital.

ON MAY 5

Fairfax Club Will Elect New Staff

At the meeting of Fairfax Women's Club at the clubhouse on Tuesday, May 5, commencing at 12:30 p.m., election of officers will be held. The term begins on July 1. Election will follow the report of the nominating committee, which is composed of Mesdames Paul A. Hammer, chairman, C. W. Carle, Thomas Teare and Ted J. Burger.

Mrs. John Fitzhenry, president, will conduct the business session. Following it, Mrs. Claire Wislizenus of South Laguna, mother of Mrs. C. B. Brooks, a member, will talk on "Life in a concentration camp in the Philippines."

A dessert luncheon will then be served. Mrs. Walter Berta, chairman of the hostess committee for the month, will be assisted by Mesdames Albert Lococo, Louis J. Condrotti, D. C. Aregger and Alfred Wuesterfeld.

At the meeting of the club on May 19, luncheon will be followed by an afternoon of cards.

Victim Must Testify In Molest Case

An "admission" of guilt by the accused, plus indirect testimony by a police officer, are not enough to indict a man on charges of molesting a girl. Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court decided yesterday.

The judge upheld the argument of Public Defender Leonard Thomas that the girl must testify before the grand jury before an indictment is valid.

The case against Robert Allen Randall, 24-year-old gardener, of 1363 Lincoln avenue, San Rafael, will therefore have to go back to the Marin County Grand Jury for another indictment. He is accused of molesting a 9-year-old girl at his home while playing "button, button, who's got the button" last March.

Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich, in an effort to spare the girl from the ordeal of testifying before the grand jury, tried the novel method of having Police Inspector Nick Giampoli testify without having the girl appear.

There is no testimony from the girl or her mother, Public Defender Thomas argued. Inspector Giampoli got the account from the mother, who got it from the girl, Thomas pointed out. "That's indirect hearsay and nothing more." Furthermore, the alleged "confession" has been repudiated by Randall, the public defender explained.

The judge decided that the district attorney should start over again with more direct testimony before the grand jury.

Hill Haven Owners To Elect Thursday

The Hill Haven Property Owners' Assn. in Tiburon will elect officers at a membership meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Tiburon Boulevard Fire Station, according to John G. McChesney, president.

Also on the agenda is a report by the directors on the status of the roads in the area which were completed last year and are scheduled to be accepted by the county.

Color Consultant Job For Tiburoner

Mrs. Constance Field of Tiburon, color consultant with W. P. Fuller and Co. of San Francisco, has been appointed by Washington Gov. Albert D. Rosellini to the "Century 21" beautification competition in that state leading up to a special celebration there in 1961.

Mrs. Field has prepared color plans for the cities of Tiburon and Weaverville, for Buckley, Wash., and was color consultant for Colorado's state centennial restoration project.

San Rafael Pigeons Win Homing Race

San Rafael pigeons placed first, second and third in the Tamalpais Homing Pigeon Club's second race of the season during the weekend.

The birds flew from Gerber, Tehama County, approximately 150 air miles to their Marin lofts. The winning time of a pigeon owned by Galaxy Loft was better than 42 miles per hour. Placing second and third were pigeons entered by Dr. Robert Burke and Richard Brasseur.

The junior club race was won by a bird flown by Craig Waller of Greenbrae. Second and third were entries of Leith Lewis of Mill Valley and Bill Krelle of San Anselmo.
